He sais we are using alot of oxycontin and susan his nurse said they use more oxycontin than duragesic. All 5 PSP cards were used form last visit and I gave them 5 more and instructed to use on thte higher doses also. NextCall: find out if they used the PSP cards and if it was on the higher doses. Also depending on his mood find out if Dr. varghi gave his resident the Levy side effect management guide and if he sees different kinds of cancer cause more pain
PPLPMDL0800000001	Euclid	OH	44119	2/28/2001	Discussed Melzac pain he feels that some of his therioles have been debuncted in his words but he did agree intuitively with the fact that ATC therapy is superior to PRN. We also went over a web site for docs only that looks at painmanagement issues, oxycontin was all over it.(POL.NET) Next Call: bring in pain management agreement forms and get him to discuss oxycontin in relation to 4 vicodin aday.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44333	2/28/2001	mentioned that if need chronic pain control, then refers showed me two patients that are on OxyContin and Dr. bressi wrote the script, asked if he would titrate and said not would refer them back out.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Gates Mills	OH	44040	2/28/2001	Did he titrate to 160mg dose? and what he's using for break-through? oxy-fast? Continue to go after start with business. Try to identify a patient that is using combos and for a few days have them start oxycontin sooner no need to wait a few weeks. He has a patient on 80mg q 12 will titrate up if pain needs are not met reminded him of the oxy-fast Next Call: Difficult to get him t get specific continue to talk titration and improvement of
PPLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44333	2/28/2001	Not comfortable titrating above 40mg q12, but has a patient on 50mg q12h. Feeling comfortable with arthritic pain an then there is chronic pain. What is the difference and what does he see more of. Mentioned writing an OxyContin script for just an evening dose patient before surgery will titrate up, but on longer term, comfort level is skewed.

	Tallmadge	OH	44278	2/28/2001	marcus function and how to use oxy in the shorter term setting they are young and aggressive with room for education and growth.they are not opioid phobic and believe in treating patients pain.they use vicodin when the yfell that the patient is not going to take meds for a long time.they quickly switch to la nad oxy is main choice.talked about the flex of oxy and how to make it mild or as strong as they need it.titration forward and backward.opioid agreement and add on stroy with uni

Says Stewart partner in geauga has 2 pts on kadian- thinks due to less chance of abuse- told him doesnt hold water- look in PDR. Used for cases today
PPLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44333	3/1/2001	Is he considering switching any of his patients off of OxyContin to another opioid? media is not a concern. he is going to OxyContin when he thinks pts are going to need pain medication for a couple of months, so usually if on for 6 weeks they will stay on short acting. He did say treating a lot of low back pain with arthritic problems, and he was interested in both the OA study and low back painstudy. Talked about going to OxyContin so usually taking vicodin at least every 4 hours before every thinking about converting to Oxy. Aske if had any pts and he said yes and would convert to 1-2 20mg tabs q12h.
PPLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44333	3/1/2001	using on spinal cord patients and post op rehab pts that come to edwin Shaw. Also mentioned this time some chronic back pain pts. 80mgq12 has a spinal cor pt. Set up going to spinal cord conference with him and Dr Hayek on March 15th.
PPLPMDL0080000001	Barberton	OH	44203	3/1/2001	talked about a patient that came from Dr Kim going through 80 vicoin tablets, for low back pain who never had a MRI so he started the patient on 10mg q12h of OxyContin and is getting a MRI. Has 79 yr old lady that is afraid to get oxyContin script filled so he gave her vicodin. Concern is that safety of the pt getting the medication, thinks the mediation is best option for chronic pain. He said the reason for er dept is that they suspect a family abusing and selling OxyContin. I got him to agree that this should not stop other pain pts not getting OxyContin.

PPLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44333	3/5/2001	Abuse and diversion is the big concern.
PPLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44115	3/5/2001	Spoke with John Stare and doc Pat. Explained that we do have a State Medical Board Liaison who represents prescribers interest to the board. All were excited about knowing that. I made it clear, per communication with Dr. Ruth, that the board is not looking to restrict the use of oxycontin, just trying to stem the diversion. Doc told me he just got a lab test back for a pt and he was negative for opiates. Pt was taking 80 q12. He's gone! Asked doc if opiates means the test is specific for oxycodone, he said yes. Find out more about that. Got more clarification from doc on his new protocol. Upon initial eval, he will use a non-opiate while he orders some diagnostic tests to confirm diagnosis (based on our previous discussion). When the pt. comes back, he will rx oxycontin. He will not write for someone who comes in and says, this is what worked or my girlfriend said its good! Pat still does not want the docs writing any c2's! But I let her know that we can be a resource for her concerns regarding the board.

PPLPMDL0800000001	Barbeerton	OH	44203	3/5/2001	when does he go to OxyContin vs the patch? OxyContin is being used for the subacute pain patient, if not controlled on 6 vicodin a day then will go to OxyContin for between 6 week and three month pain patient after that or when patient gets to 40mg q12h will go to patch. Also with the media views the patch as having less abuse potential than OxyContin.

PPLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44128	3/5/2001	he has had a couple of patients question him about taking the oxy. all of the press is slowing him a little but not to any extreme. talked about how many companies are talking about pain management and how many are talking about abuse
PPLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland Hts	OH	44118	3/5/2001	Showed doc documentation kit. HE LOVED IT! He liked everything about it. Told him that everything is on the CDROM, plus a basic pt therapy agreement. He LOVED it. He was not aware of the VA teleconference? He did say that his law enforcement friends say that oxy abuse is a big problem right now. He did say that it is not going to affect his rxing, but he is seeing a lot of other specialists who will stop writing? Did not ask him who, but I asked if they were sending him the business instead. He said yes. I asked what he thought Purdue could do to help increase education/awareness on this topic. He thought a "symposia" with the state board, DEA, and sheriff's dept would be a comprehensive approach! He does do a lot of regional anesthesia using a lot of bupri. Need to talk to him about using chiro. He said I could book a lunch and have a half an hour with him. Next call-docu kit follow up, break through meds, chiro v. bupri

PPLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44106	3/5/2001	3/5/01 great conversation- wants to run the 5/17 prog with team appr. with pt in the room- 4 cases fibro/lbp/rsd/headache- complete multidisp. review and then panel. Opis- when/when not- how- adj. Wants 2500- more from someone else to pay for responder key pads. He FEELS opis best in lbp and rsd- he does rsd as main pts- radicular pain- opis are decent there he says- Methad almost always first, then oxy/msc/kadian- says only @12 are curr. on meth- too hard to tolerate- nausea- think msc prob comes next- cost reason also- uses oxy never at q12 anymore- q8 or q6- convinced not q12- end of dose pain- describes as pain relief only 4-6 hrs and if pushes up q12 dose, would get intolerable SE. Better to go q8 he says. Will use no opis above 500mg/day- not addit. benef for SE he says- use adj./ nonpharm. Says if you can get 10 to 7, then often relaxation techn. can get to 4. Doesn't believe in BT- no SAs- defeats purpose. Disagr w/tucker or anyone who uses for headache- unless very few times/yr. Headache society says nothing stronger than 2 tylen/day- severe rebound on opis- but interested in her successes. Gave Several starter cards- good till end of month. Gave me outline of good pt selection- seemed reasonable. Kathy-nurse will love the analg PDR and does alot of the pt issues- see how she agrees w/ his doc is not overly concerned with oxy abuse issues. he says he does see some problems in his practice, but he just discharges. I explained that the other community pain guys will refer to CCF because they will get an addictionologist involved. This is good for pts. who may be pseudo addict and bad apples won't go anyway. He liked that idea. We discussed not throwing pt out there to harass someone else. Doc says he sees pts that are not being controlled with primary doc (mainly personal injury/workers comp). He says most come in on cox2's. He goes right to vicodin, out of habit and its easier to find the dose quickly. But if a pt is taking more than 4 doses a day, he converts to oxycontin. He says the conversion is usually to 20 mg. He is still using 20 mg tab, did not remember how to get to 30mg. I reminded him that he has to rx the 20 in 2 10 mg tabs so he could add a tab or subtract a tab without creating confusion to the pt.(reminded to document titration) He has a pt on 40 q12h. We reviewed the benefits, no acet, easy dosing, moderate to severe pain. We discussed TID as being one of the red flags for a pharmacy to call him in. He said he will get to q12! He had not reviewed doc kit yet. I showed him the contract, he is going to start doing a lot more of that. Because of Cole 10 tips he is now ordering drug screens. Reminded him to tell lab to look for oxy. Next call, explain how quickly he can titrate oxy. So if he started at 20 q12, written in 10's, he can titrate over the phone next day by adding tab.(steady state plasma). So start with! Remind him that documentation applies to all pain meds, not just oxy.

PPLPMDL0080000001	Euclid	OH	44119	3/8/2001	Next Call: faces scale in the rehab and discuss titration d/t function. Usually waits to see improvement in function and reduction in pain in 1-2 days after titration in the hospital. Outpatient usually a week or two before patient reports improvement because of appointment times. He wanted to know what our company is doing to rebute the negative media adds, he feels that abuse is a reality but the news should report both sides not just sensationalize the bad. Next call: bring in the patient diaries and see if he likes the set up? and bring in rebuttal pieces from the company.

PPLPMDL0080000001	Independence	OH	44131	3/8/2001	doc really interested in oxy. lots of questions about potency. he uses darvocet for mild pain, vicodin for moderate pain, percocet for severe pain. I explained that the indication for oxycontin is moderate to severe pain, so it would make it easier on pt to stay with one med! He agreed. He was real interested in potency comparisons. showed him the chart out of the pi. He was surprised to see that vicodin was as potent as oxycontin. He also wanted to know how darvocet compared to codeine (about 2/3's the potency). We discussed sunshine, melchak, the pi, titration chart, how to write, and conversion calculator.

PPLPMDL0080000001	Middleburg Hts.	OH	44130	3/9/2001	Jean Dunegan spoke at noon conference about legal implications of pain treatment and barriers to pain mgmt. doc fears licensure - she said states have passed laws to give docs rights to treat pain as they see fit. she really pushed controlled oxy codone for ATC therapy because of big release of drug from short acting could ruin pt function. (snow). also because it puts doc in control of pain mgmt, prn puts pt in control pt may see pain score as test of strength, underreport/dose. and pt associates euphoria with pain relief. doc fear addiction- is a person problem, not a drug problem and is rare for pts on opioids. contracts put doc in control. doc fear pharmacist- tell them plan. HAVE A PLAN, GOAL, DEFINE SUCCESS, and DOCUMENT IT, PTS sign it! FALL outside that, discharge, refer. No difference between hydro/oxy codone, but elvis died on oxy! when schedule developed. She said a study showed 50% of pts were dissatisfied with pain control post op.

PPLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44106	3/12/2001	3/12- has a few on oxy now- seems proud of it finally- but did have to addr w/ one @ media issue- says pt felt might be stigmat. as abuser at pharm. Agreed that requires more educ. of pt- and pharm- Send Email to him on this pharm educ need- pt was a nurse too and said oxy was what really worked for her. He wants bowso to speak to resid. noon--MFaulk- email to set up. APS book and overv of other sponsorships- thinks somewhat better comfort. overall in IM dept- but says no specif responsib. have trickled down for JCAHO initiat.
PPLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44111	3/12/2001	Dr. Ayad does not understand why it has taken so long to get chiro in pixus. Told him that I will talk to Mike Hoying again to see what the hold up is. It has been approved by PT. Doc says they are going to keep ropi for those who want it! He wants to know if there is a protocol that Purdue would like studied. He just wants to get the dept published. Not looking for money. He thinks the journal subscription is enough. He also wants to know if Purdue sponsors physician's preceptorships. He would like to attend one at a University in Texas to get some training on different block techniques. At the very least, we could bring in one of the attendings to do a grand round at the hospital.

PPPLMDL0800000001	Middleburg Hts	OH	44130	3/12/2001	Tracy helped load the documentation kit onto Kristen's computer. The first CD rom was scratched up! Tracy explained that they could put letterhead on forms. We caught doc in OR. He thought Dunegan did a good job explaining pain to lay people. As a specialist, he did not gain a whole bunch. He thought she made it sound too easy to select pts for oxycontin. He sighted doctor Sapers statement at AAPM (that we have to iron out pt selection up initializing therapy better). Spiro thought that if the past president of AAPM is not sure who should get oxy, then how can Dunegan be so sure. Next call- bring some goodies for OR nurses; seemed a little miffed that we spoke to doctor there! See if we can inservice on post op meds while dropping goodies. See if Spiro has begun using oxy as drug of choice and if only for new starts or converting dura pts. Review titration and see if he'll speak to surgeons regarding success of post op pain mgmt with oxy he heard at AAPM. Get him to attend May OB meeting.

PPLPMDL080000001	Richmond Heights	OH	44143	3/13/2001	Next call: focus on proper patient selection and to treat all opioids alike for abuse potential. He agrees that Oxycontin is the best choice to use when Rx an opioid. In general he dislikes having to use opioids and generally sends patients to pain management but doesn't treat all opioids alike for the patient. He most commonly uses opioids in the acute setting and feels he has gottent burned by vicodin and percocet in the past. Agreed that when he feels comfortable using and opioid that oxycontin would be a better choice and he agreed to use. I reinforced using the pain contracts and documentation. Next Call: Bring in patient diaries and see if he has any new starts on oxycontin and if not has he used any opioids in general.

PPLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44113	3/13/2001	asked doc how different the hassle between managing vico pts. v. oxy pts. he did not have a real answer outside of less pharmacies calling to check vico rx's. Told him that documentation requirements are the same. He felt that vicodin offered a better quality of life, less side effects, lower abuse potential. I asked if he thought oxycontin did not provide all that. He said he also believed in oxycontin but he has to warn his pts about not talking about rx's. Yvette agreed that one is not easier to manage than the other. Doc did mention that Purdue has not sponsored him to speak also. Given all the points he mentioned about vico, not sure if we would. I did tell him that physicians I meet tell me he loves oxy. He said he does. Running out of time, so did not ask what the heck he was trying to tell me. PLPMDL0080000001	Lakewood	OH	44107	3/16/2001	she said she doesn't write many pain meds. We talked about a lot of the pain she sees. Arthritics she sends to Dr. Diab. She handles some back pain and cancer pain
PLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44127	3/16/2001	talked to doctor about ca pt that she is following that is on 20mg q12, asked her about the pain and she says that the oncologist usually decides when to titrate meds, asked her why she does not, bc not comfortable with higher doses, talked to her about oxy
PLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44105	3/16/2001	talked about oxy and what dose she uses, she uses the 10 and sometimes 20, asked her what she does when those doses no longer hold, she refers to pain clinic, told her thjat she could keep those pts in her practice with titration, follow up
PLPMDL0080000001	Lakewood	OH	44107	3/16/2001	he said he likes OxyContin because of the ability to titrate to different strengths. he has most patients on 20s some on 10s adn several on 40s and 1 on the 80s
PLPMDL0080000001	Euclid	OH	44119	3/16/2001	Dr. Jones will write. Said she wanted to try, but couldn't remember the dose. Gave her Ginsberg, and explained that 20 mg was avg dose. So 10mg 1-2 q 12h. She said that was all she needed to know. Kushnir said his wife attended a talk by Dunegan. He was surprised that docs get sued for undertreating pain. We discussed that was because of fear of opioids. Brenna, his asst, said her freind was a seeker. I gave them a doc kit and said that if someone returns after normal treatment still complaining, then a thorough work up is indicated and maybe a referral to a pain center. Theyve done their job and pt will get help they need. Doc said he writes perco post op for 7 days. Explained that oxy would mean less pills floating around. He really liked that and wrote down the dose! Next call, show sunshine, perco = oxy, more convenient. Find out where use perco most
PLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44106	3/16/2001	Is ok on media issues- not singling out oxy- didnt go to our conf at AAOS , but rick confirms he is not falling off. Doesnt know @ victoroff- if still issues- Kraay- does most always same Rx for all- 20q12- did have someone on higher- but rick said later- they wouldnt go past 40q12
PLPMDL0080000001	Uniontown	OH	44685	3/19/2001	brief conversation, does have some concern with the abuse and diversion. The only way he will take a patient off of OxyContin is if they ask to be taken off of it. Low back and musculoskeletal pain are pts getting OxyContin. Pts usually take vicodin at lease 4-6 tabs a day befor egoing to OxyContin 20mg q12h. Said had a pt coming in this afternoon that was taking vicodin every 4 hours, going to switch to Oxy 20mg q12h.
PLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	3/19/2001	talked about how he is using oxy, he writes it post op and sends pt home and follows up 2 weeks later and will reeval pain then, talked about bt pain and what to dose

PLPMDL0080000001	Uniontown	OH	44685	3/19/2001	Pain would come from severe muscle cramping and spasms. When pt has mobility, concern about an opioid relaxing the muscles too much and throwing off the balance of the pts. OxyContin use will come for more advanced cases of MS. Pts are taking alot of euopathic agents first like elavil and neontin.

The majority of his patients are neck and spine patients either waiting for surgery or where surgery has not helped. If patients are not being controlled on 4-6 vicodin a day then he will switch to OxyContin. I have not been able to find out specifically who some of these patients are and besides convenience of being able to call vicodin in, why OxyContin for these patients??
PPLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44111	3/20/2001	talked about the trauma conference in april, told him i could not do it, talked about oxy and what he thought about use in gs, he said that he is seeing more use in gs cases, follow up
PPLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44333	3/20/2001	screening patients more closely, he was upset with all opioids and patients abusing them. More trouble coming from his S. Arlington office. Arthritic pain and chronic back pain where he knows the patients are legitimate and are getting their MRI's and will follow up. Patients that come in and ask for OxyContin, he will not give it to them. He will not fill the script before 30days, not even a day early. Using for chronic pain only .
PPLPMDL0080000001	Barberton	OH	44203	3/20/2001	first thing she did is ask if we were coming out with a 15mg dose for breakthrough pain, pts like taking pills more than a liquid. She takes the patients interview, pain scale from 0-10 and function along with the amount of breakthrough pain as when to titrate the patient to the next dose. Her goal of getting the patient to a 3 or 4 on the pain scale as the optimum gaol for pain relief. A few patients taking the 160mg tab q12h. She did say that she doses some patients q8h for convience. If patient has a 40mg script and needs titrated she will go to q8h to see how the pain relief is.
PPLPMDL0080000001	Barberton	OH	44203	3/20/2001	inservices on rehab floor and also get specific patients that are on oxycontin. He does not have any patients on 80mg tabs now. Discussed rehab patients , most are on 20-30mg q12h, more subacute pain than chronic pain. This time he said titrates up to 40mg q12h and then will switch to either Duragesic, MS Contin, he said if pt says not controlling the pain at that point, he goes on how the patient evaluates the pain. His evaluation is function, but he also used visual analoge scales. His next step would be 40mg q8h. Not sure if titrating a patient above 40mg q12h, whether the patient has more pain or whether the medication is not working. Wants to do post op pain control, one with OxyContin, a control group and using viox for pain control. 3/20 Found out he is leaving the Massillon rehab practice, I asked him why he thinks another opioid would work better than OxyContin 40mg q12h for the patient? He just said he listens to the patient and that is usually the dose if they say it is not working then he will switch to another opioid.
PPLPMDL0080000001	Middleburg Hts	OH	44130	3/20/2001	talked about his neck pain patient and how he is on the 80mg tablet. asked what he would do next and he said that he would be hesitant to titrate. has some concerns about detox and titrating backwards. need to get him info about pain being what the patient says it is and believing hte patient. took him in hte patient agreement.

PPLPMDL080000001	Akron	OH	44304	3/22/2001	Dr. Based on your success with oxyContin in severe pain would you consider using OxyContin for your patients sufferingfrom Moderate to Severe pain (As stated in our PI) in lower doses. They will benefit from our nice steady therapeutic window. Sleep thru the night and for around the clock care they will not have to carry around thier medication and chase pain. It is an excellent choice for your OA, low back, Postheraptic Neuralgia, Cancer or any pain state that is constantly moderate to sever requiring more than a few days of treatment. Your patients will thank you and they will not call back for refills. Do you have any patients that call back for refills on thier current medication?

PPLPMDL0080000001	Euclid	OH	44119	3/22/2001	Next call: reinforce 1-1 potency with percocet and equal analgesic dosing makes opioids all relative. the delivery of oxycontin is and improvement over IR formulations. She said she was a chemist and she likes the idea of when putting something in you get exacly that she was thinking the SA agents were a more exact sience. Acrocontin delivery system indetail she will like. She used oxycontin for the 1st time and had a couple people get looped on it so she has the impression that if they get nocked out by a narcotic then with oxycontin she has to manage the side effect for 12 hours instead of 4-6. She did agree that the patients probably just had to much opioid and that sometimes people react differtly and Percocet would have looped them also. Continue to reinforce that equal potency with percocet and vicodin if someone takes SA the4y get the opioid over 4-6 hours oxycontin equal dose over 12 hours. next call: find out what she writes for out patient?
PPLPMDL0080000001	Euclid	OH	44132	3/22/2001	Met with Dr. Castenada. We discussed a pt. at Mt. St. Joseph, Darlene, the MDS coordinator who has severe arthritis and is only on Arthrotrac. PPLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44102	3/23/2001	talked about an oxy pt, she has severe low back pain and he has her on 10mg q12, asked him what he will do if it no longer holds, he says he did not know, explained to him 3 to 2. follow up with this pt
PPLPMDL0800000001	Norton	OH	44203	3/23/2001	Chronic pain patients, like arthritic pain, some fibromyalgia, musculoskeletal and some compression fractures are getting OxyContin. Starts pain patients with NSAIDS and then vicodin writes it q4-6h 1 tab, prn. She said is more conscience of who is getting OxyContin with the increased media, but believes Oxy works the best for pain control in chroni pain patients. The older pts getting OxyContin for compression fractures, pts do not get the confusion and immediate release that they do not like. With the abuse she said not new pts will go on OxyContin and her fibromyalgia pt, she is trying to wean off of it.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44111	3/23/2001	talked to doctor in hallway, he said that he keeps having pts ask him about oxy, asked him what he tells them, he tells them not to worry, asked him about titration and he said that he is, follow up

	Mayfield Hts	OH	44124	3/28/2001	Dr. Salama says that all the news about oxycotin is creating a lot of questions about oxycotin from pts He said he still urges pts to take, that they won't become a addict. He wanted something from the company pt ed wise to educate them. I gave him the oxycotin piece for pts I highlighted for him the section that addressed addiction and pointed out that it reassures the pt! He thought that was good so I left a whole bunch with Sue, need to make sure they get to doc.

PPLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44307	3/28/2001	What do you use for breakthru medication. Page 23 in APS book speaks of titration until comfort dose is reached. What is the highest strength of oxycotin that you have prescribed? What happens when you reach that highest dose? When would you use oxycotin on the pain scale 1-10? we are indicated for moderate to severe pain. What number would you say is moderate? Severe? Do you see alot of elderly? Are you worried about gastric bleeding from Nsaids? Do you treat around the clock pain with short-acting opioids? Long-acting opioids? Both?

	Cuyahoga Falls	OH	44221	3/29/2001	Dr. Based on your success with oxyContin in severe pain would you consider using OxyContin for your patients sufferingfrom Moderate to Severe pain (As stated in our PI) in lower doses. They will benefit from our nice steady therapeutic window. Sleep thru the night and for around the clock care they will not have to carry around their medication and chase pain. It is an excellent choice for your OA, low back, Postherpatic Neuralgia, Cancer or any pain state that is constantly moderate to severe requiring more than a few days of treatment. Your patients will thank you and they will not call back for refills. Do you have any patients that call back for refills on their current medication? Patient with disc in back problems. Says the drug really works.

PPLPMDL0800000001	Warrensville Hts	OH	44122	3/30/2001	Jeanette says she spoke to the DM of Walgreen's He is concerned about doc writing oxycontin tid and is considering ordering pharmacies not to fill them she discussed with him that some pts cannot tolerate side effects at proper 12hour dose, so divided into 8 hour dose to get pt through His response was the even the company does not support this type of dosing I explained that we want docs to titrate before the change the interval because many of them give up to early on the 12 hour dose, but for her reasons it is understandable We discussed that all sorts of drugs are used out of indication She just asked us to be clear on our message because its being thrown back in the doctor's face and may cause "retaliation" if we are not clear on what we are telling docs So when discussing tid dosing, we want to tell docs to not give up on the 12 hour dose, unless the proper dose means undesirable side effects

She says that she is scared of using oxy to a point, told her not to be scared and to keep using oxy, she agreed
PPLPMDL080000001	Euclid	OH	44119	4/5/2001	Next call: bring in the patient diaries and see if he likes the set up? and bring in rebuttal pieces from the company. Did not really want the patient diaries for all his pts but said it would help a few of them and would use on initial assessment-first 2 weeks. Next call-start addressing the q8h issue-says half of his pts take it q8h. WHY?? Get himt o talk about a specific patient and why he ended up q8h. Does he start them on it q12h and then switch based on what the pt says??? How much breakthru are they taking??? Reinforce that slt the clinical studies were q12h and that they are wasting drug and money if they take it q8h. Get him to titrate.
PPLPMDL080000001	Euclid	OH	44119	4/5/2001	Next call: find out how he writes vicodin when he does use it and find out if he has used oxycontin in the acute setting. Switched spinal stenosis patient awaiting surgery form 4 lorcet 10mg/650 to oxycontin 20mg q-12 and he will be seeing the patient this week. He did say that if he wasn't controlled on the oxycontin he would have been calling him for more meds. I did tell him to provide breakthrough of 5mg oxy IR but he just had him use his left over lorcet10mg. He hasn't had any fractures or sever injuries that would require a opioid but will use again in setting he feels comfortable. Next call: Find out if the spinal stenosis patient is stable or needs a titrated. Has he used any opioids since the last call.

PPLPMDL080000001	Cleveland	OH	44111	4/6/2001	Dr. Ayad seemed to be surprised he has to write a letter to Purdue requesting a protocol for research. He ran up to check if chiro was in surgery pixus. It was not. I went right down to pharmacy after talking with Mike Hoying, Greg, the IS guy added it in to the spot. Mike says they mix the bags and it is 500cc's with sufenta and 100cc's of ropi! It was to be loaded as early as that night. Left a note for doc indicating all was taken care off! Dr. Ayad said that it will be hard to persuade docs to order chirocaine for post op pain because many are loyal to ropi! He said cost alone would do it. He wants to know what the minimum dose is to provide analgesia while allowing motor ability for a walking epidural! Had him sign a medical info letter to get info. Dr. Choi and Ayad are the main docs who round on pain on the floors maintaining epidurals.

PPLPMDL080000001	Cleveland	OH	44113	4/6/2001	nice guy, very funny. talked about oxy, he says that the news coverage has not affected his use of oxy at all, he says that he mainly uses it in his total knee pts, he says he does use in other cases sometimes, he says that they are using oxy ir for bt pain as need also, next time go after other cases
PPLPMDL080000001	Cleveland	OH	44127	4/6/2001	talked to doctor about specific oa pt, she has been on oxy 10mg for a few weeks and is complaining of pain, asked her what she will do, she says she did not know, told her about titration and asked her to increase dose to 20mg q12, she will, follow up
PPLPMDL080000001	Cleveland	OH	44111	4/6/2001	not a great call, talked thru the window, asked the doctor if he has any pts on 20mg of oxy, he said yes, asked him what he will do if need more med, talked titration adn gave him titration guide
PPLPMDL080000001	Cleveland	OH	44113	4/6/2001	doctor said just had pt that he dc on 20mg of oxy and the pt was still complaining of pain, he then titrated up to 40mg q12 and the pt is doing very well, recommended using oxy ir for rehab manipulation, follow up
PPLPMDL080000001	Cleveland	OH	44111	4/6/2001	appt. the first part of the call he was nothing but talking about the abuse issue, told him what we as a company were doing, he says that we need to start electronic rx, asked him if it has effected his use of oxy, he says that he is being more conservative, asked him if he has increased use of any other med, he said he has not, keep an eye on him with dura, talked about specific pt in the hospital on 80mg dose of oxy, this is the highest dose he uses. asked what he would do next, he says he will go up, focus on this, then he said that he did not understand how much oxy is in each pill, he does not understand how the med can releas amount over 12 hours, explained, bring him a diagram, follow up next week

PPLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44333	4/6/2001	He came from a triplicate state and wrote vicodin for his post op procedures. He perceives OxyContin (CII) and being stronger than vicodin and more for cancer pain. I compared that relative potencies of hydrocodone and OxyContin(mg-mg) showed the onset of action and he also asked how the delivery system worked, told him of first onset within 1 hours and than at around the 7th hour to last 12 hours.. Benefits are 12 hours of pain control. I asked iwhat procedures he had coming up and he said being new, did not have alot of cases yet.

PPLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44333	4/9/2001	Media and abuse and diversion are concern, not hearing alot of successes with OxyContin. He is not seeing alot of benefit of opioids for chronic pain. He has given a couple of patients a try on OxyContin and he has had to take a few patients off because not showing up in urine or lack of efficacy.
PPLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44333	4/9/2001	Using more for nursing home pts and also for subacute pain if short acting opioids are not controlling, usually up to taking a vicodin every 4 hours. Not concerned with his patients abusing OxyContin or diverting it, but did mention the concern of pts safety if an outsider finds they are taking OxyContin. no new patients on Uniphyl, has not had any patients that have been bad enough to take theo.
PPLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44333	4/9/2001	highest dosed patient he has on OxyContin is 50mg q12h, need to find out what type of pt this is. He said, he writing habits have not changed but needs to take a harder look and who is going to get OxyContin because of abuse and diversion issue. I asked if he had any pts in mind or concerned with and he said no. I reaffirmed the use of opioids, with the new sales piece.

PPLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	4/10/2001	says that she now loves oxy, says that it is now her favorite drug and that she uses it more than any other, asked her about titration, she says that she starts q12 nad then goes to tid for les opiod, need to get her back to q12, use audrey question on why pts come in to hospital when have uncontrolled pain, ask if on duragesic

PPLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44333	4/10/2001	writing OxyContin 1-3 10mg tabs q12h for 7 days, mentioned a ganglion cyst removal as a case he is going to write OxyContin for. Mentioned that some patients complain that it is too strong, on day two the pt calls back and says it really gives them a buzz. Refill issue, he did mention, after 7 days if need more meds, the office will call in vicodin for a couple of days.
PPLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44312	4/10/2001	RSD patient on 20mg q12h, patient started out taking tricyclics and not controlled, patient is doing well now. Theos using, most patients are maintenance patients, I went over ATS and NHLBI guidelines to place uniphyl.
PPLPMDL0080000001	Westlake	OH	44145	4/10/2001	Doc stopped down for Dr. Duneagan's talk. He did agree that oxycontin news is a bunch of hype. Doc made a great point that in Alaska, where there is not a whole lot to do, kids walk around with bags of gasoline and sniff it to get high and many of them die, but no one is calling for gasoline sales to be halted!
PPLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44312	4/10/2001	he said he has not changed habit, patients taking OxyCnTain are benefitting from it. One patient has severe arthritic pain and disc disease. Patient is taking 40mg q12h. Unihyl, not using theo's if patients are that bad, he will send to pulm.
PPLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44333	4/10/2001	radius and ulna bone bank graft is the procedure going to use OxyContin for 1-3 10mg tabs q12h. Using on procedures where there is bone involvement or ligament repair.
PPLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44333	4/10/2001	using 1-2 10mg tabs q12h with oxy ir for breakthrough for total knees.
PPLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44333	4/10/2001	Ultram and vicodin are the two drugs that he is using first line. Mentioned high volume and if puts patients on he can call in refills. He is mainly treating spine and neck pain and stated that he will use OxyContin if starting to take vicodin more often than every 6 hours. Benefit of q12h dosing, but need to get a specific patient that he will only use OxyContin.
PPLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44333	4/10/2001	mentioned the abuse, but using 20mg q12h with vicodin for breakthrough for total knees hip and rotator cuff procedures.

PPLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44333	4/11/2001	brought up oxy abuse, but doesn't seem affected. went over chiro for when he does his own hand blocks
PPLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44111	4/11/2001	in er, he says that he will only use oxy in severe chronic pain, asked him about fractures, he says that he will use vico in fractures bc it can be taken prn, paint picture for himand ask himm about pts that need refills or are waking up at night
PPLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44117	4/11/2001	next call: See what kind of progress he has made with the pain diaries and if he is going to keep using them. Using pain diaries has had some patients give resistance. Discussed increasing the dose of opioids and providing breakthrough instead of increasing the frequency. He feels the pharmacist won't allow him to write for two C-II's so that's not an option for him. Very sensitive towards suggestions on how to write for oxycontin. next call: focus on the single entity component of oxycontin vs the combination product like percocet with APAP.

PPLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	4/11/2001	asked about pt that she titrated that was on oxy. she says that the pt is now going into surgery for back, will keep on oxy post op
PPLPMDL0080000001	Mayfield Village	OH	44143	4/11/2001	Unaffected by the negative media stories. Usually people come to him already on or have tried SA agents and he starts with oxycontin. he doesn't like to go much higher than 40mg q-12 because of elderly population multiple drugs and old livers and kidneys. Likes the patient education material and the titration guides wants them to be stocked every couple of months at mayfield and chardon office. Next call: bring in patient ed. pieces to chardon and another titration guide.
PPLPMDL0080000001	Parma	OH	44129	4/11/2001	doc explained that he signed a death certificate for a pt who died of drug toxicity. oxycontin was not specified. Doc was concerned he may be held liable. I asked if he had done assessments and documentation for the pt. Doc said he had. I explained that according to the Federation of State Board Guidelines he has done all that can be expected of him. He could not be held responsible if the pt. overdosed. He would still like to know what the lethal dose is. I tried to explain that with oxycontin you titrate up until you reach analgesic effect, so I could not be sure if data like that is available. Also explained that if pt crushed or chewed the tab, all the drug would be released immediately and that could be toxic! Doc seems to be more open to giving q12 on oxy. Explained him to start with QID pts, total up daily intake, divide by two, and I left the titration chart to indicate how he should write the q12 dose. He joked about Kadian's conversion chart.
PPLPMDL0080000001	Gates Mills	OH	44040	4/11/2001	Next Call: Difficult to get him t get specific continue to talk titration and improvement of function. Said he has patient on 2 80mg tabs q-12 I asked him if he needs to titrate the patient to the 160mg dose and he said yes. Need to get him to clarify more? Breakthrough?
PPLPMDL0080000001	Euclid	OH	44119	4/11/2001	reinforce 1-1 with vicodin and 4 vicodin aday equals oxycontin 10mg q-12. Placed woman with lumbar condition previously on vicodin 10mg tabs 4 a day. He put her on oxycontin 10mg q-12 he always starts at 10mg. He still percieves oxycontin as stronger than vicodin. I reinforced 1-1 potency and let him know that he is probably going to have to titrate her to 20mg q-12 he agreed. Next call: show third party reference for 1-1 potency vicodin-oxycontin. Find out if he had to increase the dose for the lumbar patient

PPLPMDL080000001	Parma	OH	44129	4/11/2001	doc did say he used on that pt. he likes the q12 dosing. He is concerned about all the press regarding oxycontin. I explained that these abusers are the same people who use heroin and coke and are crushing the tabs to shoot it up. I explained that his pts are going to end up like that. He agreed and said he will use again for post op pain
	Cleveland	OH	44106	4/11/2001	told me about lisa's and boswells talk coming up- says she is doing great job- has bumped 1-2 pts to 160 q12- using the 80s- advancing cancer- get out of him lack of flex w/durag- pt variab- MShare has gone drastically down over 3mths but not enough oxy!
PPLPMDL080000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	4/11/2001	she is the one that told me that nephrotomy is the most painful procedure, told her exactly how to dose it in that case 20 to 30q12h, follow up and ask for another case
PPLPMDL080000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	4/11/2001	in uro lunch, asked him about his most painful procedures, it is a nephrotomy, he says that oxy would be a good fit and that he would use it, and that he will dose 20 to 30mg q12h, follow up

I tried to introduce the idea of Dr. bowersox speaking to the group but he was resistant and wants to run the show. He asked me to do presentation on oxycontin or documentation but he said he's already heard the whole schpeal. He is also resistant to Melzac and said alot of his stuff is out dated
PPLPMDL0080000001	Euclid	OH	44119	4/16/2001	Next call: Get him to titrate based on the fact of improving function and documenting the improvement. he's afraid to go over 40mg q-12 without pain management consult. reinforced dr. bowersox and his position of documentation is what legislators are looking for. Discussed titration guide and maintaining q-12 dosing with adequate breakthrough, he agrees but is still afraid to go above 40mg q-12. Easily gets distracted and feels he is a target in the med-net system because he's the only one writing for higher doses of oxycontin. He wants the pain team to take a stand on hte use of opioids in the med-net system. Next call; Continue to talk titration with regard to improving function. PPLPMDL0080000001	Euclid	OH	44132	4/16/2001	caught doc in mentor. he admitted to not trying oxycontin. I asked if any one reason, he just couldn't remember. So I explained that it is basically 12 hour percocet minus the apap for mod to sev pain lasting more than a few days, such as post op pain. He thought q4 was no big deal in hosp because nurses are there. I tried to explain JCAHO standards and how it effects nursing staff, but it did not seem to hit a button. He did agree oxycontin would be helpful outpt. I tried to parlay that into starting the post op pt in the hospital, but he cut that off. I detailed Ginsberg and Sunshine and suggested 2.10 mg tabs q12h. He agreed to try it. He was surprised to see someone detailing senekot. Next call-see if prescribed, explain benefit of starting post op pt in house, nursing benefits in house (since he is head of ob at Hillcrest)

PPLPMDL0080000001	Warrensville Hts	OH	44122	4/17/2001	Doc did say he is way off on his oxycontin rx's. His reason is that he is suspicious of more and more people diverting and pts. don't want oxycontin for fear that they will be robbed for it. He is using more of the patch and kadian. He did concede that a good deal of kadian pts get very bad side effects and end up back on oxycontin. I should have gone after durag harder (why use the patch if pt can take a pill). So I explained to him all the info that Purdue has learned and our action plan to educate physicians and pts on the truth regarding oxycontin. Doc admitted that this problem occurs with all of the pain med, but it is the media attention that makes it difficult. We discussed how many lives oxycontin improved and how it is so easy to take and doc agreed. Asked him to keep those pts in mind and maintain oxy as the first choice. Staff pretty much agreed that media is hyping this for no good reason and is probably doing more harm than good.

Doc did say that the advice about getting a second opinion paid off because he just had DUR and passed with flying colors. We discussed all the press regarding oxycotin and I explained how a lot of that the "news" is not based on facts. I gave the KY example. He did say he noticed that every doc interviewed said oxycotin is a good and necessary product. He also said he was trying to impart that confidence in the new doc. Doc had lost privileges at Bedford but is reapplying (due to extended absence while managing smirnoff's practice) but has agreed that when he starts performing surgeries he will use oxycotin 20 mg post-op. Will mainly be in Lyndurst from now on.
PPLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	4/17/2001	doctor talked about oxy being a oral pca, he says that oxy is fine to use in pts that are not have a hx of abuse, he says that it is approp for atc pain pts, follow up
PPLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44113	4/17/2001	he says that he started pt on oxy yesterday, chronic pain pt, he said pt was low back pt that needed more meds than vicoden, so he converted her to 10mg oxy and told him he may need to titrate soon, follow up with chronic
PPLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	4/17/2001	talking titration, he is using the 20mg dose, he is also using more duragesic, he syas that he will titrate the pt as needed, follow up with respect to pts on the floor and specific pts on 40mg dose
PPLPMDL0080000001	Warrensville Hts	OH	44122	4/17/2001	jeanette does not get into the injections. she said that asymmetric dosing has not helped out with pts and side effects (tid dosing). they are aware of the 160 mg tab. she scheduled a couple of lunches with docs, but did say we should do an inservice with staff on 160 and titration.
PPLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	4/17/2001	next time ask what he does when oxy is no longer effective, or if pt has said that oxy did not work, then use follow up questions like what kind of dose where they on before oxy, what did they do when they switched,
PPLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	4/17/2001	focusing on titration, today he talked about pt who was on 80mg tid, he is going to switch to oxy 120 q12, follow up
PPLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	4/17/2001	see in clinic, he is not big fan of chronic opioids, ask him what he does, talked about dosing oxy q12 instead of tid and titration
PPLPMDL0080000001	Lakewood	OH	44107	4/17/2001	went over titration guide and nothing was mentioned about abuse
PPLPMDL0080000001	Lakewood	OH	44107	4/17/2001	he talked about a patient he had contolled on 2-3 20mgs of Oxycotin that was getting worse with a number of problems that he was going to titrate to 80mgs q12
PPLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	4/17/2001	talk about dosing of oxy, he says that if pt is at 40mg dose he uses the 40 mg pill, told him the 20 mg pill was easier for titration, follow up on specific pt
PPLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44130	4/17/2001	he feels that oxy is stronger than the combos and he likes to use more mild stuff.went over potencies and showed how to make oxy equivalent to the others and how he can titrate backwards
PPLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	4/17/2001	talked about the karpal reprint and how to add on to 2 other agents and how to initiate tx, she has pt that is on 400 of uniphyl, but pt needed more, went to 600mg dose and then pt had side effects, switched to 100mg theoo q12, asked her to switch back to uni 400 plus 200mg
PPLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	4/17/2001	talked about how to titrate pt that is on oxy 20mg tid, get back to q12 dose then talked about adding another 10mg pill
PPLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44113	4/17/2001	doc totally ignoring media reports of oxycotin. he really did not have a standard protocol for pain pts. To start, if the pt took something in past for pain he will use it again if pt was satisfied. If not, he will use something else. He also figures in pt preference, pills, patch. This applies to all options (patch, morph, oxycotin). He does not have a limit on oxycotin dose. He does use TID if pt. is habit out of SA. I just suggest that he document why he is rxing tid in chart because oxy has never been studied other than q12 and pharmacies are cracking down on dosing on q12. Gave doc oxy pt edu brochures and explained them to mary sue. she suggested that I also talk to Cindy Paravici on the 4th floor, but outpt surg going home order. find out if they have standing orders over there.

PPLPMDL0080000001	Bedford	OH	44146	4/18/2001	doc does believe in chiro for peripheral block, do cervical plexus for coratid artery sensory. Open to post op pain but feels at those concentrations that is would be cost prohibitive. We showed bromage scale and motor sensory separation, but doc said they dilute bup to .0625 but combine with fentanyl. We explained that .125 was monotherapy. But we suggested going with 3/4 and diluting down to make more cost effective. Aslanian does mostly epidural and cervical plexus for coratid, so we showed overdosage info from PDB. All were not swayed by oxycotin media coverage. Although Susan had a lot of questions.

PPLPMDL0800000001	Parma	OH	44129	4/18/2001	explained time principles to both doc and Nancy. Needing to use right set of tabs for the right dose. Explained that it automatically takes in account 25 to 50% increase. Explained brkthrough and pointed out that chart indicates what brkthru does to use at each level. Doc seemed very open to all info and even though nancy said she had a million of those charts, it was obvious after talking to her that she did not know what the charts meant! She said doc is really focussing on converting gid pts. Need to remind doc that if he is documenting and assessing, he fulfilling his obligations and is supported by regulatory agencies. Gave him number to med services to discuss lethal doses and toxic doses so he can talk directly to a doc about that. need to show them the fancy pens with titration chart right in it.

I highlighted all the steps that Purdue is taking to get out in front of the diversion issue. He was impressed with the rx pads and mexico restamping. He did say that Janssen just had a dea and med board and addictionlogist conference two weeks ago at the four points in independence and it was well attended. He summarized the presentation pretty close to what we have been telling our docs, document, assess, take anti-diversion measures and you are covered. We discussed chirocaine, but he said for his vascular blocks, he uses lidocaine. He thought chiro would be good at VA but cost would be prohibitive. Discussed the cost of just on bad case. he understood but stated it would be a very tough sell.

Says that she doesn't like to send them home on narcs--just sends them back to their surgeon--but what does she do with them then?? Probably sends them home with percocet--need to find out. Where does she place Oxy?? Using some Percocet and Darocet mostly. What about the pts that are not surgery pts??? At the time has no patients under her primary care. In about another year she will begin building total care practice for some of the patients that need to see a Re-hab doc long term. 60-70% of her patients are orthopedic mostly hips and knees depending on what is involved determines the length of time she will care for them but once they reach time for hospital discharge they go back to the surgeon or PCP. next call. When she gets the patient after orthopedic surgery do they come to her on PCA? Do patients come to her already on and oral opioid? What is it? Introduce the ginsberg paper to her and show the benefits of oxycontin after PCA and how it can provide better participation in re-hab because it's a better way to control their pain

PPLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	4/19/2001	asked doctor about roth reprint, he says that it was versus placebo, told him it was to show that oxy was effective, and that once stable dose is reached the pt stays at that dose, follow up
PPLPMDL0800000001	Richmond Heights	OH	44143	4/19/2001	Next Call: Bring in patient diaries and see if he has any new starts on oxycontin and if not that he has used any opioids in general. Has not used the agreement forms yet but when I asked if he has Rx any opioids since I've seen him last he said yes. oxycontin for an elderly woman with OA elbow pain that was on SA agents converted her to 20mg q-12. next call: He did like the ongoing assessment form and will implement it but he gave me some documentation pieces that he feels would be helpful to all physicians. the idea would be to create a pain packet that a physcain could go to when screening someone for opioid use. It would contain: Agreement, ongoing assessment, patient handout from Spanos, Check List, outline of pain diagram so patients can label where their pain is and type, with an oxycontin titration pen. Also find out how the elderly woman is doing and see if she needs titrated and what other patients like her can be converted.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	4/19/2001	talked to doctor thru window, asked him about whether or not he feel oxy is good for oa pain, he says no, set appt.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	4/19/2001	pmr, he says that he is working with harris today, has several pts coming in on oxy, he syas that he has no problem titrating the pts, but harris sometimes will not, follow up

	Euclid	OH	44119	4/19/2001	Next call--start addressing the q8h issue--says half of his pts take it q8h. WHY?? Get him to talk about a specific patient and why he ended up q8h. Does he start them on it q12h and then switch based on what the pt says??? How much breakthru are they taking??? Reinforce that sll the clinical studies were q12h and that they are wasting drug and money if they take it q8h. Get him to titrate. When he thought about it he changed his position and felt that it's alot more rare for him to use the product tid. Most of his patients tid are trouble patients that are not always very compliant and he is not very comfortable with the idea of giving them high doses of immediate release oxycodone. He did feel that he would give the oxy-fast a try in patients he feels comfortable with having that much immediate release but his goal is to not have to use the IR preparations at all. he is resistant to using the titration guide and feels it's for physicians that don't know what their doing with titration. he has it in his head, he goes from q-12 doses of 20 to 40 to 60 and so on, so he is titrating according to percentages but he did like the titration pen he thought it was a neat toy. Next call: find out if he did use the oxy-fast for any of his patients and what was the dose? also has he implemented the ongoing assessment for the initial titration period when he brings patients back every week.
PPLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	4/19/2001	talked to doctor about titration of oxy, he says that he has a pt on 40q12 now, talked about bt meds and showed him how to titrate and when, follow up
PPLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44102	4/19/2001	Ask Dr. when he thinks it is appropriate to place a pt. on Oxycotin. Spoke with Dr. menyah about when he puts a pt. on Oxycotin. He said he does not like to use long-term NSAIDs or COX-2 long term due to the side effects. He then puts the pt. on Oxycotin, usually 10mg q12h. He will use Oxy-IR for breakthrough. He will increase the dose if the pt. uses more than 2 breakthrough doses. He likes our product and goes to many of our seminars. I gave him a great deal of literature on Oxycotin and many of our studies. Also laxative protocols.
PPLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44102	4/19/2001	Worked the second floor. Spoke with Debbie Zajak. We discussed two pts. who were on Vicodin that we were going to convert to Oxycotin. One pt. was from Dr. Patel, and one was from Dr. Sundaram. I gave her a pain management folder. Also spoke with Trudy on the Caritas unit. She has a pt. on MS Contin 30mg q12h, percocet, and Duragesic. Said pt. had history of drug abuse. Said pt. is doing well. I told her when we were ready to increase the dose that we might convert to one med. Went to the rest of the floors. We converted a total of 5 pts. to Oxycotin. One pt. on 3 was converted to 20mg q12h from Percocet 10mg q6h. This pt was on 3. Went to see Bill. He told me that someone complained about my roaming the floors and that they felt pressured to use Oxycotin. I asked Mercedes if she heard people complaining. She said that a non-nursing personell complained. Mercedes said that she did not have a problem with it.

But it is his first choice among oral opioids. He gets many referrals from mednet and surgeons in area. He will usually convert most pts to oxycotin unless pts insist on staying on current med. He was very interested in chiro info. He does use bupri for all procedures. I used flip chart chiro sales piece and explained the benefits of less tox and at lower dose, less motor block. He wants samples to try. cost seemed to be an issue, but I assured him any saving swould be lost with a serious adverse event. Ask about rescue equipment, where he does blocks

She did not think it was because of cost, but she did express concern that all the media attention and her just starting to rx might get her a visit from dea. I explained that any dea agent would say if they are rxing exhorbinate amounts for poorly documented pain, then she may be reviewed. But at the dose she uses, would not be a big deal. She gave me name to nurse manager on ob and 5th floor to do inservice! Next call, tell her what to watch for in seeker and find out what procedures she used. PPLPMDL0800000001	Lakewood	OH	44107	4/23/2001	Met with Dr. I explained that after residents are taking ATC short acting, they should be converted to Oxycontin. He said after a week. Will need to address this next time. He is aware of the fears of physicians and said he had always read that it is whatever the pt. needs. I reinforced this.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44106	4/23/2001	doc is thinking that abuse is outgrowth of non-specialists rxing oxy when pts do not need. pts does not know what to do with tabs so they sell. he disagrees that oxy in appropriate for persistent pain unless it lasts for more than 6 weeks. He says that some pts only need pain meds for certain parts of the day. I explained that we only promote oxycontin for mod to sev pain lasting for more than a few days, as it is indicated. He thinks pcp's should have at least one consult with a specialist if they are going to rx an opioid. I told him that as part of our message we do tell non-specialist to get at least one consult to check plan and confirm diagnosis. Does not agree with oxy for post op pain at all! Because it goes away. He wants to speak, and bragged about how much duragesic sends him all over the country! Told him I would see about setting him up with primary care docs.

	Warrensville Hts	OH	44122	4/24/2001	doc says it is getting bad with oxy. caught him out at ashta. he says anyone he suspects is a diverter is getting methadone for cost dura or kadian or ms contin. doc said pts are concerned about filling oxy and having people looking at the strangely. I explained to doc that pts should not let anyone know what they are taking. He does instruct them to do that. We talked about chiro, he did say he is in surgery on Friday and will try it. I did tell him about the motor/sensory separation at lower concentrations. he will try. asked about the 160 tab and he had forgotten about it, but he does not think he has anyone on that dosing. Next call: remind doc of benefits of oxy and to assure his pts they have nothing to worry about.
PPLPMDL0080000001	Barberton	OH	44203	4/24/2001	Talk about the AIDS patient, said wrote 160mg tab, but was sending up to UH for a second opinion, what is status of the patient? What does he consider moderate to severe pain to be? What type of patients? What opioid does he use first? Marcus reprint. Uniphyl... tell me how treat a COPD patient?? use the new COPD piece in the CD case... senokot-s... talked about a patient that was getting OxyContin 80mg tab, lumbar cervical problem. Pulmonary fibrosis are the patients that are getting uniphyl, 600mg. In place of vicodin, acute fractures are considered moderate pain. not laxative protocol, mentioned dulcolax as recommended laxative.

Patient was hospitalized for pain management, they put her on epidural pump which is helping but it doesn't reach the cervical pain that she's having. Has put her back on oxycontin 40mg tid with 4 aric pop cycles for breakthrough and she's still not controlled. I suggested putting her on 80mg of oxycontin q-12 and giving her oxy-fast for breakthrough. Dr. fishman agreed to use the oxy-fast but he still is probably going to keep her on tid dosing I get the feelinging. Next call: since this woman is terminal and has out lived all expectations, fluctuating pain needs q-day Ask him why not just keep increasing her oxycontin every day until she is pain free?

	Akron	OH	44333	4/24/2001	dosing OxyContin 1-3 10mg tabs q12h post op. Only side effect patients are experiencing is pts get snowed or say that it makes them feel funny and do not what to take it anymore. Find out what procedures he does that experience moderate to severe pain, what is he using, vicodin or OxyContin. Where is he using vicodin vs OxyContin.? new surgical piece. Oxy ir for breakthrough and senokot-s... said would use OxyContin on all cases today. He is either writing the 20mg or 10mg tabs q12h. using vicodin when refills may be of benefit. Writies OxyContin for seven to 10 days Discussed writing the 10mg tabs q12 writing 1-3 for more flexibility. Carpel tunnel only get Darvocet.
PPLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44333	4/24/2001	Dr Engles comes from a triplicate state of Illinois and is using vicodin. On the previous call, did not know the benefits of OxyContin for post op pain. Compared relative potencies with hydrocodone, the prompt onset of action and q12h dosing with less pills to take and allowing full nighttime of sleep. Goal: Find a common surgical procedure where he is using vicodin, find out how dosing and going to use OxyContin and how to dose it-->> Use the new post op selling piece. Oxy ir for breakthrough and senokot-s... has finger tip cases that do not need so viewing OxyContin for an elbow case dose 1-3 tabs 10mg q12h, think where using show benefits and where talked about post op use of oxy, he says that he uses alot of vico and percocet post op, talked about oxy and how it is the same but it gives 12 hour protection and no apap, asked how long pts were on meds post op, he says for 10 days, asked him to write 10mg 2 to 3 q12, he will, follow up
PPLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44111	4/24/2001	going to use OxyContin 1-3 tabs q12h for procedure that has bone involvement, so for more severe pain. PPLPMDL0800000001	Beachwood	OH	44122	4/26/2001	Dr. has some different views on pain management. He will prescri be a short acting med q12h to appease the pt. and the staff if he gets a call over the phone until he can get to see the pt. He is using Oxycontin, but seems to have the idea that because it is long acting, it will accumulate in the system and residents will be very sedate. Need to begin to show him the Oxycontin studies that address mood and Q.O.L.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44106	4/26/2001	12/00 using more since pcut multi dose-wants as simple as poss- will defer to res- just dont mess it up 12/19 Jan spaulding- will split w/ Pat in 2001- she did spine for many yrs- was also the one who asked me about going into pharmac. last summer. Does Marcus and Goldberg- he walked off to see pts- says has been using quite a bit- she says used alot of oxy couple months ago- not much right now- no pain mgmt now- but says pct is used a ton- Sees alot of variab. in pts pain and in both hips and knees. Seems to think of oxy for revision pts who will be in "signt" pain- Agreed with oxy post op strat- says will have to see what the guys think- Says res write to few 40 pills for hip! PM is for weeks to months- reinf equal anal/ and iv convers- mentioned rehab analg needs- see it thats only time they need. vs requesting chonically. Also tapering simplicity vs going to vico or dvct 1/22 post op says going great- using over vico now too makes much simpler- see if he would support at VA. Big into technology- dig camera- pda, etc. 3/12/01 now says that everyone is getting nausea on oxy and wont use anymore- more than w/vico- says didnt use pct before. only using 1-2 10mg12 he says- foot/ankle pts- short blocks- give oral whatever @ 2hrs post op- Get the numbers of pts tried on. others success- usually less N/V- try just 1 q12 for first day- how many are needing 2? says will stick with it- not sure if he will- have him talk more w/getty and goodfellow- still says naus was the prob- i think prob only 3 or so pts- sounds like all got 20q right off- not sure if he is with me on start w/10q12 first- give it a chance-f/u 4/30- still get phone calls on Vico- has pat and jan handling, he really doesnt know freq of calls w/other opis- just has used longer- get them to document more

PPLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44333	4/27/2001	abuse and diversion is the big concern, being more selective with patients to receive OxyContin. I responded was to be consistant on evaluating all pain patients the same way, no matter what opioid going to select. If assess the patient and evaluate the pt will get an opioid, OxyContin is the best option.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44127	4/27/2001	talked about oxy, she asked about all of the bad press, asked her if it was aproblem for her, she says that she is worried about her pts safety, talked about proper pt selection

PPLPMDL0080000001	Parma	OH	44134	4/27/2001	Met with Sister Luke. She is the D.O.N. She likes Purdue and their products because we have small tablets and make it easier for the pt. This is a totally non-profit Cancer home. All funds are donated. They used to have a direct acct., but now buy through Amerisource. Will need to Wendy. She is the pharmacist. There is an on-sight Pharmacy.
PPLPMDL0080000001	Parma	OH	44129	4/27/2001	Met with Patty. She is the Dir. of the Hospice. She asked to see us. She wanted Myths of Opioids books. They get all their meds for their home pts. from the in-pt. pharmacy. They get their meds for their nursing home pts. from the CPP that services the home. They are getting ready to open an in-pt. unit in June. They are using our products, but mostly MS Contin. Will get in to in-service in June.
PPLPMDL0080000001	Parma	OH	44134	4/27/2001	Went back to see Wendy. She is getting special pricing through Amerisource, but did not what contract they are buying off of. She said she will find out. They are using a lot of Duragesic. She said it is what the Doctor's want. I saw no Oxycontin. Only MS Contin and Duragesic. They are using some Oxy-IR.

PPLPMDL0080000001	Lakewood	OH	44107	4/27/2001	lunch had a great discussion about how useful oxycontin has been for many of his patitns he went over about 5 or 6 patients and mentioned how they can not function with out it
PPLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44333	4/27/2001	Had thought of OxyContin as a non abusive long acting vicodin. He mentioned cancer patients more as the type of pts. I went over the PI and mainly the indication. He is being more selective on initiating OxyContin to patients. Asked him the question if took Oxy off market would it stop the abuse of medication, he said no. More comfortable with writing OxyContin. He did say have to pay better attention to overall pt selection and He is using a ton of vicodin, very vague. Comes off as a red physician? When asked said most common type of pain was back or musculoskeletal pain. How many vicodin scrips do you write a day? How many do you refill a day? What benefits do you see with OxyContin vs vicodin? The next patient with musculoskeletal pain that comes in and needs more evicodin, give them OxyContin and tell him how to dose it.. Use Fleishman reprint... Uniphyl... when is he initiating theo for COPD patients use th new COPD piece for unli.. senokot-s... said using OxyContin and will write it for next patient that comes in on vicodin for a refill.
PPLPMDL0080000001	Westlake	OH	44145	4/27/2001	he said he has to be one of the biggest uniphyl writers around because he writes a few scrips every day

PPLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44132	4/30/2001	Next call: see if he converted the patient to 60mg q-12 and they may have to be bumped up again. His expectations of a pain med other than pain relief are 1. cost and 2. convience. he has not seen the patient back yet that he converted to 60mg q-12 from 40tid but know complaints. I asked him where he use LA morphine vs oxycontin and he has a couple of patients that their insurance plan would only cover morphine no oxycontin but this is rare. Next call: try to identify another tid patient that can be converted to q-12. where does he use duragesic? in combination with oxycontin?

PPLPMDL0800000001	Richmon Hts	OH	44143	4/30/2001	Gave him pain agreement and he liked it has a couple people on oxycontin for chronic pain couldn't remember exactly what. reviewed roth reprint and identified OA patient not tolerated on NSAID's with moderate severe pain. he agreed to use oxycontin 10mg q-12 to see if theirs an improvement in function and reduction in pain. Next call: what new starts on oxycontin has he made? OA? He remains concerned with the news media and
PPLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44319	4/30/2001	Has not put any new patients on OxyContin. Maintaining a group of patients on OxyContin, two pts he mentioned, cervical vertebrae ruptures and fibromyalgia. Documents every patient, he did have to dismiss a patient for noncompliance with OxyContin. Still using vicodin first line and patients are calling back for refills. Uniphyi, COPD patients with nocturnal exacerbations.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44117	4/30/2001	Was happy to hear about the pharmacies reporting the fact that they liked the use of the pain agreements that he was using. His main goal is to use oxycontin only and no breakthrough for chronic severe pain. He feels it's the best drug to use when someone has constant pain. Next call: reinforce where he likes to use it constant pain see if he will titrate those patients
PPLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44195	4/30/2001	caught most of the docs by the schedule board. did not get to ask mekhail about speaking at trumbull. Weisman said that no one is pulling back on oxycontin use. He did remember chiro, but had not tried, so he is going to give it another go. I even suggested that residents doing their first injections use it so doc can focus on technique and not so much on cardio problems. Word from abbott rep is that dews is pulling back, but she is on vacation, so not able to ask her. The rest of the guys appreciated the titration pens. Scheduled lunch with kelly with group and nancy said that is way to go to catch everyone.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Euclid	OH	44119	4/30/2001	Main concern remains standard of care for use of opioids? he's afraid of being investigated because it's happened twice where patients wer'er receiving opioids from other doctors than him. I reinforced using the contracts and the fact that it would be apart of his medical record as proof that he addresses this issue with his patients. He wants to have a round table discussion with the UH group and talk about use of opioids. He told me about the use of Skelaxin and how it's supposed to potentiate the use of narcotics, synergy. Has difficult patient on on and off of oxycontin with vicodin for break through discussed establishing him on oxycontin only and avoiding the peak and trough of vicodin. Next call: need to get him to realise and titration above 40mg q-12 or tid is the same process as going form 10-20-20-30 etc.

	Euclid	OH	44119	5/7/2001	pain assessment inservice developed some good discussion regarding the use of too much percocet use with the oxycontin. Patients on oxycontin 20mg q-12 taking percocet q-4 hours??? I got a commitment form the
PPLPMDL0800000001					midnight nursing staff to ask the physicians to convert patients over to oxycontin if they are taking SA agents q-6 hrs and to have the patients titrated if taking percocet more than 2 times a day while on oxycontin.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Euclid	OH	44119	5/7/2001	Good attendance identified increase in percocet and not enough titrating of oxycontin. reviewed TIME principal with a couple of the nurses and they agreed to ask the docs to increase oxycontin for patients taking SA q4-6
PPLPMDL0800000001	Euclid	OH	44119	5/7/2001	Again in the afternoon in-service we identified that they seem to be giving alot of breakthrough Percocet for the folks that are on oxycontin and agreed to ask the doc to titrate the dose of oxycontin up
PPLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	5/7/2001	he says that dr dinchman has used some oxy in the last few weeks, talked about how he is using oxy for pts in between diagnosis and stone surgery, follow up
PPLPMDL0800000001	Euclid	OH	44119	5/7/2001	Next call: find out if he did use the oxy-fast for any of his patients and what was the dose? also has he implemented the ongoing assessment for the initial titration period when he brings patients back every week.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	5/7/2001	in clinic, talked about using oxy post op and the dose that he is using, he says that he uses 20 mainly, but dose have experience with 40mg dose, talked about using 10 and 20mg and titrating if needed, oxy ir as well. follow
PPLPMDL0800000001	Parma	OH	44129	5/7/2001	doc did not have time to chat. just reminded him about oxycontin q12 for atc pain. left ginsberg
PPLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44195	5/7/2001	is going w/q12 for all now- no more q8- Did say it bid- make sure knows the diff- Says pt is holding pt well no titr on curr. pts.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Euclid	OH	44119	5/7/2001	came to the pain assessment inservice and did want to know about the news media and what are people doing with oxycontin out on the street? Selling it? Abusing? She did agree with me that the news media has
PPLPMDL0800000001					sensationalized the story.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Parma	OH	44129	5/7/2001	doc did use oxy for surg. thought it did well. reminded of q12 benefits and making nursing staff lives easy.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44333	5/7/2001	OxyContin 20mg q12h with OxyIR for breakthrough, using 1-3 10mg tabs. If can not tolerate OxyContin will go to vicodin. Vicodin and darvocet are used for carpal tunnel.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44333	5/7/2001	wrist procedure that involves pin insertion into the unlnar bone. 20mg q12h with oxyir for breakthrough.

PPLPMDL0800000001	Barberton	OH	44203	5/8/2001	abuse and diversion is the biggest issue. Addressed it and talked about senokot-s and asked about pt becoming tolerant.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Norton	OH	44203	5/8/2001	asked what we are doing as a company for abuse and diversion. Urine drug screen, need to specifically ask to test for OxyCodone. Assessment of pt, OxyContin is still best option. Patients that he has used, said pts did not like it because it gave them a heroin like high. Not idea about pain management or common sense. He tried to tell me about pts that he had to switch oof of OxyContin back to vicodin or percocet because it gave them a heroining like high. Common sense if the pt describes the feeling that that have be experimenting with drugs and should not get any opioid.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Warrensville Hts	OH	44122	5/8/2001	asked doc about speaking, not sure because midday program. prefers evening stuff. not leaving oxy like maria foglio said he was. he is hanging in there because he has switched pts to vico and dura, but they want their oxy,
PPLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44304	5/8/2001	so doc instructs them to not tell anyone they have it.

Patsy handles lots of calls and knows that Mervart had rx'd oxycotin. q12 dosing. plasma concentrations v. sa, no apap, indication, abuse issues, dosing and titration. All 3 docs said they will use. Simpson said she would just use for pts with risk of post op infection because she only rx's opiod for a couple of days. Mahalaha said she would rx for post op pain. Although, just because a low back pt was on oxy for more than a few months, doc thought she was an addict. she also thought her husband was wimpy because he kept complaining of pain and tylenol wasn't cutting it. Turns out that he had a broken rib. I explained that this is evidence of our bias towards people who complain about pain and we need to be careful about that.

PPLPMDL0080000001	Mayfield Hts	OH	44124	5/29/2001	Laham really stressed the importance of using la opioids for post procedure pain as basal dose and using short acting for breakthrough. Zahrawi is orthoped and he said he used oxy, but went away from it. He will go back to using again. Just stopped writing because no one around to remind him! Salama says he has not had as many pts concerned with oxy lately and he is comfortable to still rx. He is going to Egypt next week. Talked about convenience of oral meds v. patch. The Abbass's both use a little oxy for post procedures, some time for a month because face pain is hard to tolerate. Azem's and Deeb did feel more comfortable about using oxy for pain in their practices once we dissected media reports about oxy!
PPLPMDL0080000001	Euclid	OH	44117	5/29/2001	Has two patients on oxycotin that he has to let go from the practice. 1. took 1.bottles of tylenol and is in southpointe so he doesn't want to treat someone who is that unstable. 2. The other patient

PPLPMDL0080000001	Richmond Heights	OH	44143	6/1/2001	I gave him the pain packet and he agreed to implement it. we identified that probably his little old lady population has a corner on the darvocet market. He feels comfortable moving them over to oxycontin if darvocet is not working. I more specifically asked for patients taking 4-6 darvocet chronically since 6 is the max of darvocet n-100 and that fact that it shouldn't be used long term nor does it meet the goal of relieving pain as well. Next call: bring in pan reference guide and show him 6 max dose and reference that darvocet not recommended long term
PPLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44106	6/1/2001	doc moved residents education to mon pms 415, would like to bring in Dr. Gruden in on 8/6. He and Dr. Norsha coordinate on directing residents program. He thinks it would be a good idea to come in to detail and then follow up with Gruden's talk. Doc would like to do this as each resident makes his/her rotation through regional anest.

PPLPMDL0080000001	Warrensville Hts	OH	44122	6/4/2001	He is still concerned about the abuse and diversion of OxyContin, the only patient type that he is using is the older patients with arthritic pain. he is not using Oxy for the younger low back pai pt because he thinks these pts are in the higher risk pt group for abuse. Using generic theo for COPD pts, he has alot of older pts with COPD, but writing generic.
PPLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44111	6/4/2001	Both docs say they are still using oxycontin, but not as much as they used to. Oramorph is on all of them and oxycontin is relegated to limited use, but that is not happening. Oxycontin is still doing well and the hospices really are not following the formulary. Ann said there are a few physicians that are not wanting to write Oxycontin. I told her to write those names down for future reference. She said she would. Ann said they did not use the 160 mg. so it was not an issue with them.

PPLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44333	6/4/2001	had to dismiss a patient who was injecting OxyContin, he was a legitimate back pain pt who has had two surgeries. Talked about assessing and reassessing pts for opioid use. OxyContin use has slowed a little and the patch has picked up the business but making sure proper pain management and the use of opioids.
PPLPMDL0080000001	Euclid	OH	44117	6/4/2001	I need to see how he feels about putting the 80 tid on 120 q-127 with BT? I feel i need to give him a heads up on the 160mg tablet because I know the competition will. bring in patient education pieces and has he been using the pharmacies? He feels that if he has a pain management specialist recommend tid the patient is doing well then he thinks it makes sense to keep them on tid. His main concern is that when he writes for oxycontin using the 3-2 rule is that you have to write for alot of tablets when writing for tid you never have to write for more than 90 tablets. he started a woman who was taking percocet with intractable head ache pain to oxycontin 20mg q-12 that is doing great. He did like the free times article and the main thing is he likes oxycontin because it works and he has alot of patients that he trust and gives them oxycontin. Too his own admission the patients that he didn't trust were also legitamate. He wants to refer to Dr. Bowersox because he's not happy with Zaidi's bed side manner.
PPLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44312	6/4/2001	set up lunch and convert percocet pts with back pain to OxyContin? Percocet and vicodin are being used for arthritic pain and musculoskeletal pain, not seeing an advantage of OxyContin over the short acting opioids.
PPLPMDL0080000001	Euclid	OH	44119	6/4/2001	he has no worry that the FDA will change it's opinion on use of opioids in non-malignant pain. 	Mayfield Hts	OH	44124	6/5/2001	Met with Mike. Ruth presented Pain mgt. CDROM. Mike liked. Got a call from Marsha and they want to sign up. The Eastern Region is the Meridia system. So phase one roll out will be to all pharm staff. they will have a month to complete. Then it will be rolled out to staff in pain clinics and then oncology throughout the meridia system. At that point, it will be handed to education staff to roll out to all other staff! Offered our asst. to pull the program through in the depts. Mike was a little miffed about using chirocaine. He does not think that there is any real benefit to justify the higher cost. We talked about motor block, but he was not convinced. He said it is too much trouble to stock if docs don't use wholesale for mixing up some of each bup/levo. Plus the order forms have to be modified to order the chiro. So a lot more work involved than just stocking. So I need to talk to Kuhel about all this and have him follow up with Mike on this.

	Cleveland	OH	44106	6/5/2001	Ruth presented the pain mgmt CDROM to the system. Nancy Tinsley, Quality Improvement, Nancy Haas, Coordinator, Nurse Education and Ron Cowan, asst pharm dir. in attendance. Sounds like UHC has some hard ware issues, so they are not sure if they will be able to put cd on intranet, due to lack of bandwidth. Ron will talk to IT guys about this issue. The other issue is the lack of computers or training centers for staff to utilize. Nancy Tinsley's question was "how will this affect what happens at bedside?" I explained that for the staff to see an appropriate assessment will give them a model to utilize. She agreed because in their concurrent evaluations of pain mgmt, she says assessment and reassessment is scoring horribly in most areas. Ron Cowan's main concern was that staff get to this at will (ease of access). He is working on developing programs similar to this for many other disease states. Haas' concern was making sure all affiliated hospitals, who have asked for a lot of help, have access. Nancy H. would like me to present the cd to the system wide educator meeting of which Sue Coburn manages. Have to follow up with Haas on date. Nancy T. wants to have the Pain team sort of prime the program by taking it. Since reps from every specialty are on the team, it will help spread the word faster and work out any kinks. That meeting is 7/20 at 9am. in Lerner bldg, 10B. Some names of important people to talk to, Dr. Keith Armitage, Dir. of IM residents program; Dr. Schulak, Dir of Surgery; Mike Lyden, ext 45935, is director of PPLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44111	6/7/2001	Presented CWRU pain mgmt fellowship program to Musca, he said he will definitely take advantage of it. He was concerned that Reyes would not. Dianne told me doc told some pt to go to different pharms if one would not fill! Told her we would make sure that we discuss that with doc about limiting pharms that pts go to. Break through today with Reyes. He is concerned about abusers. Explained to him that he does not get penalized if he gets fooled. Just if he knows it but does nothing about it. He felt pts got bad addicted to oxy easier than perc/vic. I showed him the plasma levels and how SA's have the high peaks which is where side effects come in. Contrasted that to oxycontin plasma levels. Then I reassured doc with opioid piece that all agencies support the use of opioids, just need to do something if we suspect abuse/diversion. Read DEA and State Board quotes. He asked about what he should do if he suspects abuse, I told him to get consultations, do pill counts, urine screens. He said he would try oxycontin for pts needing ATC pain.

PPLPMDL0800000001	Westlake	OH	44145	6/13/2001	lunch. she said she has about 10 patients with back pain, osteo, or cancer on oxycontin. She just put a patient on oxy 20mgs bid
PPLPMDL0800000001	Euclid	OH	44119	6/13/2001	I gave him a copy of pain management prescribing guide and we discussed darvocet and the maximum dose of 6 tablets day and how it could cause intra cardiac conduction delays. He felt that it was mostly theoretical but still a good point and agreed that if someone needs to take that many darvocet a day then perhaps oxycontin would be an option. Next call: build off of the pain management rx guide and go over 1-1 with vicodin
PPLPMDL0800000001	Westlake	OH	44145	6/13/2001	OB detail for post op pain. Dr. Starck just read something in a mag about oxy for post op. So we discussed dosing off of Ginsberg, titration, blood levels, sleep improvement, side effects, nursing productivity! Reinhold just asked about the abuse news, so I explained that its a paper seller right now and explained the facts of some of the stories that have been reported. Grosel had no questions. None of the docs use standing orders. Got name of OB CNS and will set up inservice for dept.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Parma	OH	44129	6/13/2001	doc very impressed with call he received from Dr. Robert Reder. He said Dr. Reder did answer a few questions that doc had about overdosing on oxycontin and plasma levels. Asked doc to write a letter and even have pts write letter to address at fda. He said if there are hearings, he will bring a bus load of pts. to testify. I asked him to just write a letter. Doc is full bore with q12 dosing. Need to review titration, though, because he did say he had a pt on 50mg. I thought he meant kadian, but he said a 40 mg tab and 10mg tab. I picked up pizza lunch for them today.

PPLPMDL0800000001	Cuyahoga Falls	OH	44223	6/13/2001	OA, 20 mg. He says he uses alot of pain medications for his patients and I spoke of drug interactions and gastric bleeding, contract, sleep thru the night, 12 hour smooth pain control.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Euclid	OH	44119	6/13/2001	I told him about the landerhaven conferece and that it was a reinactment of patient profiles. He wants to have a round table discussion with all the pain guys at UH boswell, kriegler, Rosenberg, winner. I said that's not a bad idea but we need some type of moderator because of two many chefs in the kitchen. He told me that boswell told him not to worry about going to tid with 40mg for his patients so he can avoid the higher strength tablets which could call attention to the doctors Rx habits??? He has a injury case that the state wants him to look at that has a patient on 160/day or Q-12 he couldn't remember but he felt that was a high dose that he wouldn't Rx without pain management consulting on the case. Next call: have him give an example of when he referred a patient to pain management and they suggested to increase the opioid dose? At what dose does he send them on to pain management for 2nd opinion?
PPLPMDL0800000001	Gates Mills	OH	44040	6/14/2001	Has not started anyone new lately. He avoids any specifics and immediately brings up abuse and the bad press.

PPLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44333	6/14/2001	He is having his post op patients taking vicodin during the day and 20mg of OxyContin to help their pain and also to sleep. Biggest complaint is the OxyContin makes them feel "out of it" during the day. He does hvsve some of his pts taking OxyContin around the clock. Procedures are ones he deems more painful, example breat reduction. Said he just wrote 2 scripts this week, with 20mg dosed only in the evening.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Barberton	OH	44203	6/14/2001	script pads to be implemented into the practice.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44113	6/14/2001	signed doc up for rx program, awan moved to wisconsin. no one would say where. doc does not see any reason to change rx because of media attention. he agreed to write to fda to support opiates. Marylou lost a lot of staff, mainly prn nurses working, she is on call all month! Left spanish pt ed materials
PPLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44333	6/14/2001	Not going to use on all cases, trigger finger or carpal tunnel, using for bone involvement including ligament reattachment.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Barbeerton	OH	44203	6/14/2001	what is he using for moderate to sever pain, where an opioid is required for more than a few days? Using the Patch, for patients that he thinks may be taking too many vicodin or percocet and showing a addictive personality. Discussed the biphasic delivery system and the second release at the 7th hour. Compared to the patch and he thought that the patch could not be abused and no problems, compared to OxyContin and showed the ease of use. He is dosing the patch every 48 hours. Mentioned back strain patient give 10 10mg tabs for short term pain. Uniphyl, notstarting new pts on theo, converted two pts from BID theo to Uniphyl.

PPLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44195	6/18/2001	doc pretty soft spoken. bruce roth also there, leaving for arizona next week. doc did not see any real need to spend more money for an anesth for the safety reasons. So I showed him the bromage scale/motor block info. He said he currently uses 1/16th with fentanyl and epi, which reduces the chances of safety issues and little motor block. We discussed how easy it would be to use one product v. mixing all these other products (pharm mixing and the admin that goes with using the opioid). He agreed to at least trial chiro .125 v. his "cocktail" and measure for motor block and adequate analgesia. He would like the .25% 30 cc vials to reduce down to .125 in 100cc bag. He will trial on 20 pts and see. Need to get samples, either move Lozada's over or order doc his own. Next call, get names of ob staff and see if can inservice based on waters experience.
PPLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44113	6/18/2001	talked at lunch, doctor says that he has used it a little post op, says that he has one pt he sent home last week on oxy it was total hip pt and he could not get pain controlled on vico, says that he switched to oxy 20mg and it worked, told him it will work for others, says that the fact that he can not call it in is inconvincent, talked about oxy and how he can write for 3 weeks worth, follow up
PPLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	6/18/2001	Talked at clinic, she is still chief in trauma, says that some doctors are discouraging the use of oxy in the op setting, but are still using quite a bit of it in the hospital, talked about the rx pads and if it would help, she said it would, so follow up
PPLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	6/18/2001	Talked at office, set up lunch. says that oxy 20 mg seems like too much to use in oa pt, told him to start at 10mg and titrate as needed, just like he would with an nsaid, follow up

PPLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44333	6/19/2001	a couple of his older pts have not been able to tolerate OxyContin, was using the 10mg and one condition he said was compression fracture. Talked about pts waiting to go to surgery and the use of OxyContin, he said when it was appropriate, asked when it was and he said for ATC control, said most are only taking 2-3 tabs a day. This is a misconception, because he writes the script 1-2 q4-6h. Views Oxy as being stronger than vicodin so really using for more severe cases or where the pt says vicodin is not covering the pain.
PPLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	6/19/2001	Talked at lunch, doctor says that she is mainly writing oxy now and that it is working well so far, told her no longer be rep, talked about 1 per day hydromorphone, follow up
PPLPMDL0080000001	Fairlawn	OH	44333	6/19/2001	OxyContin is being used for pts that need atc opioids or pts that have been taking vicodin or percoet atc for a chronic pain condition. He gives pts the option and did mention a pt that said that vicodin is the only opioid that worked so that is what he kept the pt on. Seeing alot of pts from the ORS group at the crystal clinic, spine pts or back pain arthritic pain pts starting to take too many short acting opioids. Signed up for tamper resistant script pads.
PPLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	6/19/2001	lunch, talked about pts that are on 11c now, he has pt that was on darvocet and pain was bad so he switched to ms contin 15mgq12, but had nausea, asked him to switch to 10mg and need to titrate, follow up

PPLPMDL0800000001	Lakewood	OH	44107	6/20/2001	Dr. said trend is to put everyone on Oxycontin. Marty asked him when was last time he wrote. He said yesterday. He said it was for a cancer pt. I asked if he ever uses for non-malignant pain. He said mostly for Cancer. For non-malignant pain, he uses T4 or Vicodin. Told him that Vicodin and Oxycontin are equipotent so you can use Oxycontin instead of Vicodin. He said to leave infor on desk. He had an emergency and had to leave. Need to get very pt. specific with him. Need to ask specific questions related to specific pts.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44333	6/20/2001	said one or two pts on OxyContin, no new pts on Oxy, more selective and how to pick a pt out for chronic opioid therapy.

PPLPMDL0800000001	Brecksville	OH	44141	6/21/2001	Met with the Pharmacy Supervisor. His name is Richard D'Atri, R.Ph. He explained that at this facility is a 200 bed nursing home, and some out patient clinics. I set up a lunch with the medicine clinic on July 5. Richard said only some of the scripts from this V.A. are filled at their pharmacy. Many are filled from a mail order pharmacy in Chicago. There is really no policy for roaming this unit. I have free reign.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Fairlawn	OH	44333	6/21/2001	no OxyContin.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44333	6/21/2001	Two patients have asked to be taken off of OxyContin. Still had some question whether OxyContin would show up as morphine in a drug test and needed to clear up this misconception. New OxyContin patients are waiting longer, he will stay with vicodin until taking 5-6 tabs before going to OxyContin.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44333	6/21/2001	going to convert all uni dur patients to uniphyl. Nocturnal syptoms, using as third choice or line after atrovent and serevent. Talked about at levels higher than 15 patients get alot of heartburn upset stomach and sie effects, likes to keep theo levels at 7-8.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44333	6/21/2001	has two cases this afternoon going to use OxyContin, one has do do with deviated septum going to use 10mg tabs.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44333	6/21/2001	Using OxyContin post op with vicodin for breakthrough. Patients taking OxyContin for first 2-3 days and then going to vicodin then to darvocet. He is not doing anymore back or spine surgery, chronic pain problems.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	6/21/2001	talked at clinic, says that in house oxy is being used bc of long acting. in op clinic, doctor says that oxy is not needed. he says that they use sa agents for the dressing changes. talked about pts going home on oxy when they need rehab
PPLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44333	6/21/2001	has pretty well gone away from starting any new pts on OxyContin, he thinks it is more addicting but he is just selecting the wrong patients. Talked about OA patients, most of pts are low back pain, where we are indicated but are not good opioid candidates, but he still will give percocet or vicodin.

PPLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44333	6/21/2001	Mentioned his schleraderma patient on OxyContin , 20mg q12h. OA patients are getting darvocet, then taking a couple of vicodin. If pain is moderate enough and need atc pain control he will give them 10mg q12h of OxyContin. Would not give a specific OA pt now.
PPLPMDL0800000001	South Euclid	OH	44121	6/21/2001	Marcus has stopped writing because of nausea. Says he puts pts on vico and nausea subsides. He reasoned that with lower peaks oxy should have less side effects. He loves the q12 dosing. We broke down the dose he is using (10mg 1-3 q 12). Then we discussed how early after pca is dose given to see if they are laid over one another, but nausea occurring next day. Goodfellow same thing, but he was using 20mg tab and titration hard. He agreed to use 10 mg tab and titrate more appropriately. Wilber, no problems, no questions. discussed abuse issues and he is unaffected. He usually tells the resident to rx oxycontin so he is not sure how they are dosing. need to get with residents and make sure dosing is appropriate.

He usually tells the resident to rx oxycontin so he is not sure how they are dosing. need to get with residents and make sure dosing is appropriate.
	South Euclid	OH	44121	6/21/2001	Marcus has stopped writing because of nausea. Says he puts pts on vico and nausea subsides. He reasoned that with lower peaks oxy should have less side effects. He loves the q12 dosing. We broke down the dose he is using (10mg 1-3 q 12). Then we discussed how early after pca is dose given to see if they are laid over one another, but nausea occurring next day. Goodfellow same thing, but he was using 20mg tab and titration hard. He agreed to use 10 mg tab and titrate more appropriately. Wilber, no problems, no questions. discussed abuse issues and he is unaffected. He usually tells the resident to rx oxycontin so he is not sure how they are dosing. need to get with residents and make sure dosing is appropriate.

PPLPMDL0080000001	Brecksville	OH	44141	7/5/2001	Have lunch for the medicine clinic. Will discuss Uniphyl as the primary and find out when and why they use theophylline. Had lunch for the clinic. Spent a lot of time discussing Oxycontin and pain management. They are interested in seeing the pain contracts. They need a lot of education on pain management, especially for non-malignant pain. Dr. Wakin-Fleming wants me to bring in a speaker on pain management. I though about Dr. Perran. She liked that idea. I also discussed throphylline and Uniphyl. They are still using some. Need to convince that theophylline still has benefits for COPD and Asthma.
PPLPMDL0080000001	Solon	OH	44139	7/5/2001	Did the second in service on pain assessment. Also discussed a pt. with Bernie who is not getting any kind of good pain relief because the pts. son is an Orthopaedic surgeon and won't allow her to have anything but T3. I gave Bernie some information to show to the lawyer son, who wants his mother to get good pain relief.

He has a patient that has been seeing a neurologist for 3 years who has developed RSD after breaking both of his feet. he was on Mobic and Neurontin and could barely walk. Morley started him on 20mg bid and he got about a 40-50% reduction. The patient feels as if he gave him a big part of his life back. MoRley is still hesitant to titrate any further but did agree to go to 30mg bid if no further pain reduction or improved function then keep him at 20 but do titrate. The highest dose he has someone on is 80mg tid and the patient is doing better. He increased the dose based off of Zaidi's recommendation. he is also going to refer the RSD patient to Bowersox. next call: did he titrate the RSD patient? Pads? any other new starts?

PPLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44319	7/13/2001	Dr is using some, but his patient base is the group that always wants the vicodin or percocet and does not want to admit has some problem patients. he says he does not use medicine like OxyContin it is being abuse too
PPLPMDL0080000001	Norton	OH	44203	7/13/2001	works closely with Dr Trump, went over 10 point plan and how we are addressing the abuse issue. She is using OxyContin on LBP, one is fibromyalgia. The staff is buying into the media abuse issue and they think all her OxyContin pts are addicts. Assessment and opioid contracts.
PPLPMDL0080000001	Barberton	OH	44203	7/13/2001	Frustrated with pain management, he is still using much more of the patch than OxyContin, this has to do with both the media and also Dr Ogonek's past prescribing habits. He just did have a patient having trouble, calling in early for the patch refills, she is claiming that the patch is only lasting 12 hours, so he is aware that abuse can happen with anything. Titrating up is easier with OxyContin and also to decrease the dose, very difficult with the patch. OxyContin new starts are for short term ankle fractures or acute injuries. Chronic pain patients are being maintained on same medication, need to work on getting some conversions from the patch to OxyContin.

PPLPMDL080000001	Mayfield Hts	OH	44124	7/17/2001	met with mary sue. she is dead set on getting oxy kicked off of formulary. she thinks it has no place in house. docs could use it for home going but no sense in having in house. she does not see any need for chiro, but balls rolling so she may not be able to stop it.
PPLPMDL080000001	Mayfield Heights	OH	44124	7/17/2001	Dr. Mary Sue McAslan clinical coordinator for the hospital. Main point is that docs can write for oxycontin and patients will get it but she would prefer to see it only used in chronic long term pain management cancer preferably. She is very bitter regarding the incident with barb and Audrey last year with standing orders and promotion in post-partum. She kept making comments that C-sections don't need oxycontin for pain control percocet is fine? She has the perception that it's stronger than SA agents. She is data resistant to the Pl and Ginesberg study she acts as if she knows all the information already. need more support from physicians using it.

PPLPMDL0080000001	Euclid	OH	44132	7/26/2001	Sue, part time nurse, says she hasn't seen doc rx oxy lately, mainly duragess. I explained that oral is preferred route, that pt. variability in plasma levels is greater with dura, heat and weight issues, administration, and showed her how easy oxy is to admini and titrate. explained no ceiling dose and cost benefit. Dr. says he usually goes up to 80 q12 then will refer to pain spec. Mikhail, Laham or Salama. He is concerned that product was going to be restricted. I explained that all regulatory agencies have assured purdue that they are not trying to prevent legitimate pain pts from being treated, that we just need to educate everyone on how to manage opioids. NO lunches in euclid, but can in the pink palace (mentor).
PPLPMDL0080000001	Warrensville Hts	OH	44122	7/26/2001	detailed doc on oxycontin still being the best 1st line choice of se because of ease of titration. gave him feedback letter. he did not think purdue has done anything out of line and is doing too much "sucking up" and is inviting disaster. gave wick pt ed materials addiction terms, myths and oxy pieces.

PLPMDL0080000001	Euclid	OH	44119	7/27/2001	He was fired up today. Dr. mease who is the new medical director of occupational medicine has a very puritanistic attitude towards opioids. her feeling is that a patient should only be given meds for three days and then get rid of them???? he was having a meeting with administration to discuss pain management and what kind of support he can get for his practice. Also Chris told me that people have been making comments like Terri NP that george Rx to many opioids. He has taken over the PM practice that the two rehab doctors left and if he wasn't treating them they who would.
PLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44113	7/27/2001	talked at lutheran briefly, he says that he is still writing oxy some for post op, but now mainly for his chronic pain pts, follow up

PLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44106	7/27/2001	saw ron in pharm. thinks chiro is done. not sure benefits are needed in practice, plus higher cost. when i explained that it is not as expensive as ropi, he seemed to have the two confused. But i eplained that for residents, might be good idea. He said Boswell did not support it before! Need to see if boswell has changed opinion
PLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44106	7/27/2001	talked to ron about chiro. thought it was loser. Boswell did not see a need for it. Said oxy was no brainer. But need appt to discuss its utilization. JCAHO coming up so call end of July.

PLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44119	7/27/2001	might be easier to catch docs out in satellites. but cnm is Wendy 8447385
PLPMDL0080000001					greg full time pharmacist only have one patient on Uniphyl. He likes to joke around alot. His main stance on oxycontin is that some people are going to abuse and some people need it. he's not going to withhold it because it can be used wrongly. he stocks all strengths because they get request for all strengths. He said di cello does mostly percocet but some oxycontin some from george and link mostly from yokiel and allen.
PLPMDL0080000001	Mogadore	OH	44260	7/27/2001	sleep thru the night, ten point plan, revised package insert.
PLPMDL0080000001	Richmond Hts	OH	44143	7/27/2001	didn't have time to go over tamper Rx pads. He has the same patients on oxycontin that are doing well. He said i probably have a few more that could benefit from oxycontin.

PPLPMDL0800000001	Brecksville	OH	44141	8/1/2001	Dr. is very hesitant to write opioids. She brought up the physician in Florida who is being brought up on murder charges. She said she would never give Oxycontin to a 21 year old. I told her that it depends on what her history is and what kind of assessment was done. She feels that very few people should be on Oxycontin.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Brecksville	OH	44141	8/1/2001	Dr. was very vocal about pts. she is getting from primary care that she says are clearly dependant, and may be addicted. She said these pts. are very difficult to get off of opioids, and the PCPs are not in tune to the use of adjuvant meds. She said they are much more comfortable prescribing opioids than adjuvants. Dr. said she wants pt. info and articles on pain management. Will supply them to her.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Brecksville	OH	44141	8/1/2001	Dr. started the conversation on Oxycontin. He asked if we were "pushing" Oxycontin. I told him we were selling the product, and proceeded to discuss the 10-pt. plan and the Friedman letter.

	Richmon Hts		44143	8/3/2001	He uses very conservatively. he's worried about people abusing it or getting harassed for it. Agrees that people can benefit from it if nothing else is working for them. uses a little uniphyl mostly generic but agreed to use in patients with nocturnal symptoms.

PLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44105	8/3/2001	talked at southpoint lunch, talked about oxy adn the abuse issue, say that stocking has been a problem, follow up

PLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44333	8/3/2001	He did say that the media has changed his prescribing habit, he said some of his patients do not want to be on OxyContin for either the abuse factor or they are afraid to get it from the pharmacy. He said he is using it for chronic pain, fibromyalgia, diabetic neuropathy, low back pain and arthritic pain. Patients that are needing frequent refills on vicodin or have been taking for at least 6 weeks. Uniphyl for COPD patients after severent.
PLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44321	8/3/2001	Opioid agreement contract, using for chronic pain and even mention a compression fracture patient that he gave 10mg q12h.

PLPMDL0080000001	Barberton	OH	44203	8/7/2001	He is going to sign the practice up with script pads.
PLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44117	8/7/2001	he uses the agreement forms with every patient. he really makes good sense when it comes to patients with pain and use of opioids to manage their pain. clear distinct qualities he looks for in a person taking an opioid. he mentioned quite passionately that he would now like to talk to a group of local doctors on use of opioids in pain management and if Purdue would sponsor him as a speaker. he does realise that he's a maverick but feels the community thinks of him as a good doc and they will come and listen to what he has to say.
PLPMDL0080000001	Euclid	OH	44119	8/7/2001	he asked about the 160mg tablets but does use multiple 80's for higher dosed patients. he has one patient on a 4 80's tid and she has legitmate pain with a history of abuse so he keeps her on a very short lead. he was unphased by the new PI changes. he did mention the post-op but it only refers to the immediate 12-24 hours.
PLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44333	8/7/2001	He mentioned the DEA issue and he is still using Oxy morethan any opioid, but has been using the patch more.
PLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44102	8/7/2001	Met with Dr. to try to pin him down on a date for him to speak to a select group of physicians on pai n management. He said he though it would be best to wait until the hoopla dies down. I told him I thought this might be the best time to teach proper pain management. He seems a little skidish on wanting to do the program, although he does understand pain management and is a big supporter of Oxycontin. he says he is not shying away from Oxycontin in the nursing home, but does not use a lot in hi soffice practice.
PLPMDL0080000001	Euclid	OH	44117	8/7/2001	did they get the script pads? Has he had to refer anymore patients to pain management or Bowersox? Any patients you have that are taking more and more SA vicodin or percocet that may benefit from being converted to oxycontin? He was super busy and needed some senokot samples. He was unphased by the PI changes and agreed to talk to me when he had more time.
PLPMDL0080000001	Richfield	OH	44286	8/7/2001	Met with Janet. Discussed the MS Contin situation with it going prior authorized. She said she only had one resident on MS Contin and they were changed to Oramorph. She said she is seeing an improvement in pain management since the in-services. They have many residents on Oxycontin, thanks to Dr. Menyah.

PLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44319	8/7/2001	He could not remember a new start patient on OxyContin, titrated a lady with fibromyalgia to 20mg q12h. Chronic pain, like arthritis and back pain are main disease states using for. Uniphyl, COPD, has a patient on theo dur going to switch to 400mg qd.
PLPMDL0080000001	Barberton	OH	44203	8/7/2001	Patient with disease called stugeon leg syndrome and back pain, he gave 20mg q12h of OxyContin. He is thinking of OxyContin for more short term pain and the patch for more chronic pain. He thinks that the patch is ideal for nursing home patients because they just lay there and patch will not fall off. Discussed blood plasma level for steady state is more consistant than OxyContin. I SHOWED HIM both PI's in that OxyContin gives more steady blood levels. The media has affected OxyContin for chronic pain, he thinks the patch is not being diveded as much now so a little more comfortable. Uniphyl, not uni dur or theo dur.

When asked what we should have researched, he had no idea! Same with Chiro. He thinks our actions (10 point plan) are off the mark. I explained that each step addresses what law enforcement has told us are the major techniques of diversion! He was heavily influenced by articles in the new york times. Next call, ask him if i detailed the benefits of oxy out of the newspaper, if he would think i was credible. He is notgoing to interfere with chiro coming on board, but wants to see head to head data.

PPLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44333	8/20/2001	Post op pain management. Concern over time to use OxyContin immediate post op he thought it was 24-48 hours. I went under the indications and showed him it was 12-24hours immediate post op. Still had concern for ambulatory use, mentioned that patients get some narcotic for pain(oral) before they go home so by the time they need OxyContin it will fall into the 12 hours range and the patient can then start taking OxyContin. Positive spin is that OxyContin now has an indication for post op pain management. he has a rhinoplast case and going to use OxyContin 1-2 10mg tabs q12h.

PPLPMDL0800000001	Euclid	OH	44119	9/5/2001	talks in circles, as if he were giving a deposition in a court of law careful not to be specific. he feels that an extended period of time to him is generally about 6 weeks. He feels LA agents are best suited for more constant pain but only to be used if all other modalities have failed. He tries blocks, anti tricyclics anti depressants etc. He started a failed back patient recently on oxycotin 20mg q-12 that's still in pain? I asked him if he plans on titrating that patient. he said eventually he doesn't like to titrate quickly and he's uncomfortable over 20-30mg of oxycotin. next call. any failed back patients that hve been taking SA that could benefit from oxycotin.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44333	9/5/2001	He is using low dose 1-2 10mg tabs q12h for a rotator cuff repair of a re tear of the left shoulder. He and Russ also put a patient from DR. Melby on OxyContin 10mg q12h with vicodin for breakthrough where the pt was not being controlled on vicodin and the patient was doing well. They also put DR Miller's patient and he was initially upset adn after talking to them He said maybe he should try Oxy more for pts.

He admitted to q8 about 5 % of the time. I asked if there was a reason he did not just titrate. He said not really then explained that ms was supposed to be 12 hrs and kadian is supposed to be 24 but neither are. I explained that we have never tested q8. He did say he would titrate up before interval shortening. we talked about using right pill mixes so titration in easy. he was aware, but I had nothing to show him. He said he has a few pts on 240 q12. He realized more than 2 brkthrh a dose meant titrate up.

PPLPMDL0080000001	Beachwood	OH	44122	9/17/2001	doc pleasant guy. was surprised no one had been by in so long, thought it had to do with news. explained changes. Reminded him of oxy indication and reassured no concern in his pts population. He generally used it first line, but is trying other products just because reps around a lot. told him i would come around as much as needed to get him back to a well tolerated, conveniently dosed product. He appreciated it and samples of sennakot.
PPLPMDL0080000001	Euclid	OH	44119	9/17/2001	Mostly wanted to talk about the terrorist attack. he really does talk in circles if asking specific questions about patients. The best way to find out info is to just let him talk.

Chirocaine" had samples and no follow up stated... went on to say if i want him to use it he needs samples of chiro .25 will not buy it or request it if company wants his business he wants to try it on a new block he is doing fluroscopic blocks going to spain september 24-oct 8
PPLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44106	9/17/2001	Came to lunch told about new starts last week. focused him on the atc Perc. pop. NEXT 10mg 1-2 TAB Q12
PPLPMDL0080000001	Euclid	OH	44119	9/17/2001	he came upon the conclusion that if he uses oxycontin q-8 then he's once again causing peak and trough effects like with SA agents and he doesn't want that so he's increasing the dose. he said he didn't like having to write two scripts though when it comes to writing 30 q-12. he writes for one 20 and one 10. I asked him to use 3-2 rule and write for 3 10mg tabs to be taken q-12 hours and then he'll only have to write for one script. He agreed and will do so. Next call: get pricing for generic LA morphine vs MS contin and oxycontin. for patients that have finance issues he feels that generic morphine cost half of what oxycontin does.

I asked him what I could tell him, show him to get him back to where he was with oxycontin. He reassured me that everything is fine, but I explained that its not! That he is no where close with oxy where he was and its unfortunate that the media has freaked him out. He insisted that things are fine, so I did not push. He did not know what the Pain Relief Promotion Act was. I told him I would let him know after the talk on the 19th. Next call. Just ask if something other than the media attention has affected his writing of oxycontin.

But borders are managed mainly on pca/morph. explained about conversion from morph to oxycodone. Detailed oxycontin, plasma concentrations, dosing/titration, managing brkthru, side effects. npo question came up, mentioned dura or maintaining pca, or rectal admin. also mentioned oxy fast. seemed like most enjoyed info. explained that oxycontin is same pot as perc, just longer acting. someone asked about dose limit. mentioned that no limit on single entity, opiod match pain. talked about combo products and limits because of tylenol. Boswell, will put together cook-book talk together for marymount dinner. Understands docs needs to just be told and not know esoteric stuff. Wilbur, open to using chiro for infiltration, but need to get on form first and go through pharm and anest. He cannot make it happen but will support. Ritchey agrees that it just a knee jerk reaction to increase interval instead of increase dose. mainly because they don't have a lot of time to follow pt. and titrate properly. Also seems like they lock themselves out with the tab mix, because a 40 mg pt will get a 40 mg tab, and feel to increase dose means to go with 2 40'. Explained that if that pt had 2 20's, they could just add a third tab at the 12 hr dose. They maintain the pca infusion for the first dose of oxy, then on the second, the pca is only for brkrth, then dc'd on third dose. doesn't seem to make sense. Hernandez is speaking to residents in a few days. Jim is trying to get her some slides. Talked to Ritchey about docs doing pain pumps for ortho procedures, he said he would talk to a few people to see who's doing them!

PLPMDL0080000001	Gates Mills	OH	44040	10/4/2001	Next call: what patients does he feel comfortable using oxycontin in? None of them and then he laughs. He has increased his use but he does not have a favorqble opinio about opioids. next call: does he differentiate between addition and tolerance? what does duragesic offer over oxycontin?
PLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44105	10/4/2001	he thinks that resident s get better training than he did, but still not enough, talked about opiod doc kit and oxy in mod pain, copd and uni
PLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44127	10/4/2001	he says that the problem with oxy is that it works too well, nice guy, talked about how oxy can be as potent or as mild as he wants it to be, 10mg oxy is only like taking a vico every 6 hours, talked about managing side effects and senokot
PLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44333	10/4/2001	He is not using that much at all, he is concerned over scrutiny he could face with writing OxyContin so he is using vicodin or darvocet.
PLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44127	10/4/2001	talked about post op use of meds, he says that most pts do not need any more than prn meds post op, says that some do need more, talked baout oxy in those pts. went thru dosing of 10mg
PLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44321	10/4/2001	Chronic pain, more than 30 days will get OxyContin. most patients are older and suffer from arthritic pain.
PLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44319	10/4/2001	Chronic pain patients takt are not controlled on short acting opioids will get Oxy. Acute fractures or severe strains will get OxyContin. Proper pt selection is the key. Lung pts, if severe enough send to the pulmonologist.
PLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44105	10/4/2001	talked about the documentation kit, she wants to set up resident program at southpoint, uni sasmples, copd
PLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44333	10/4/2001	He has his same chronic arthritic patients on OxyContin, aminly his older patients that he feels comfortable with prescribing OxyContin. Younger pts are getting short acting.
PLPMDL0080000001	Middleburg Hts.	OH	44130	10/4/2001	met with tom yu, no probs lately, will place senokot sample in all constipation causing prescriptions, has seen alot of uniphyl samples knew of its ab rating to generics, said he does fill some theodur and theo 24 rx's, i told him of d/c of the dur's.... is still filling oxy all strengths he didnt seem to have issues with any one particular doc
PLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44105	10/4/2001	see notes
PLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44127	10/4/2001	stock only 10 and 20 oxy
PLPMDL0080000001	Middleburg Hts	OH	44130	10/4/2001	Met with Kris about our going into the hospital during national hospice month. We will be doing this with Lisa Shaheen. She will have the opportunity to meet all the unit managers in the hospital for nursing. We will do this in November. We will meet with all 10 units.
PLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44307	10/4/2001	spoke with pharmacy in POB building in need of senokot samples-- give them out with every opiod updates on oxy 160 and meicaid given
PLPMDL0080000001	Barberton	OH	44203	10/4/2001	Dr Bhe and Dr tang.
PLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44310	10/4/2001	md using pain pumps but will not see reps worked with nurse and gave her info on chirocaine she did inform me that wolf does see reps and lunches on Main street in akron
PLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44333	10/4/2001	Senokot-s samples.
PLPMDL0080000001	Richmond Hts	OH	44143	10/4/2001	He is very cautious but is maintaining about three patients on oxycontin. I need to focus on episodic and constant pain with him and may get earlier starts
PLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44105	10/4/2001	he says that oxy is still being used there, but not that much, but wants me to keep talking to the residents and educating them, gave him opiod documentation kit and uni samples, copd
PLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44302	10/4/2001	md and sue the chemo rn treat patient together when and if the pain is not under control they refer the pt next door to the pain consultants (julie and ann) majority is handled in practice md is in akron more than Hopkins and Karlen and Jenison luncheon scheduled
PLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44319	10/4/2001	If pt is in sever epain, he is using more MS Contin vs OxyContin for fear of misuse of OxyContin. he believes all pts develop a tolerance which he is confusing with physical dependency.
PLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44105	10/4/2001	went thru the who ladder for pain meds, he uses the nsaid for moderate pain and then goes to prn short acting, placed oxy in the next step at 10mg, uni and copd
PLPMDL0080000001	Fairlawn	OH	44333	10/4/2001	If pts come in on vicodin or other short acting opiod and are doind well, he will not switch the pt. Pts that are not being controlled on current medications will be converted to OxyContin. He does alot of occupation injuries, low back pain or failed backs from spine surgery and types. Side effects, nausea sedation and vomiting cause pts to be taken off. Talked about side effects dissipating over time except for constipation.
PLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44105	10/4/2001	main focus was on uni, but talked oxy and using it in pts that have been on short acting agents for awhile and now need to be titrated, tlaked about conversion to oxy, uni and copd
PLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44302	10/4/2001	wow tough call as md gave little info shared oxy advantages regarding stable plasma levels q12 hour dosing and increased quality of life would not reveal when she moves from oxy to the patch but did add that she does not believe oxy works for everyone nr does the patch general terms only refocused me to work with Julie getting the point that this practice relies on julie and ann to treat pain in pts
PLPMDL0080000001	Middleburg Hts.	OH	44130	10/4/2001	met with margret had some concern with filling a tid rx for kansal, i explained our contin deliv system and out data to support q 12 hour dosing but not tid, however if it is a doc that you have a relationship with and trust his judgement i have seen it being filled as such, we however do not promote it that way. is filling many uniphyl rxs??? stapled sena to boxes
PLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44111	10/5/2001	focus on tid vs q12, he says now he is no longer hearing from pts wanting to be removed from oxy, says that he is now using oxy in many pts again, in the tid dosing he says that he starts pts on q12 and then goes to tid, he says that it works better and he is opiod sparing, sends pts home and tells them initially to take either 3 10s q12 or 2 10s tid, he says all pts come back taking tid dosing, he is documenting exactly what he is doing, talked about how the 3rd dose could be diverted. only goes to 30mg tid and then if he needs to will switch to kadian or dura, highest dura is 100mc patch. bring in more senokot samples and pens, follow up
PLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44333	10/5/2001	fallen into the patch having less abuse than OxyContin, chronic patients that has a concern or new patients taking too many vicodin are being put on the patch.
PLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44111	10/5/2001	talked about dosing oxy asymmetrically for some pts, he has pt that keeps waking up at night bc not enough relief, on oxy 10mg, but did not want to up the dose during the day, told him 10mg am and 20mg pm
PLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44313	10/5/2001	md needs much reminding and coaxing to write for post op pain ie a csection. does see advantages of oxy vs q 4 hour med and importance of limiting tylenol. POA' ask why not start writing oxy nes post op lady
PLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44106	10/5/2001	doc developing new opinion about long acting meds for acute pain. does believe that joint replacements, where pts on atc for a few weeks, should take advantage of long acting convenience/benefits. Need to get him into depts to share thoughts with surg.
PLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44111	10/5/2001	he saked me about oxy ir, talked about how it differs from percocet and the lack of apap, next time talk about oxycontin

PPLPMDL0080000001	Warrensville Hts	OH	44122	10/8/2001	Dr. Alberini, IM resident doing his ON rotation with Abrakasia. We discussed the indication for oxy and how to initiate calculating total daily dose and dividing by two.. Dr. Abrakasia agreed that if pain was going to be persistent you have to be proactive. Discussed titrating if more than two episodes of breakthrough a day and to increase dose between 25/50%. Discussed using shortacting or non opioids for brkthru. And then, since single entity, titrate to effect, no max dose, only limited by ability to manage side effects, discussed sennakots needing stimulant to get smooth muscle contractions. Dr. Abrakasia confirmed everything said. next, talk about pt types and success stories with oxy.

PPLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44302	10/9/2001	2 reasons why he is writing meth. now 1. medicaid coverage in practice is a great barrier-- staff and md spending too much time on the phone getting authorizations approved and denied 2. Media states psychiatrists which is a huge referral for him are stating he is crazy for his aggressive treatment with oxycontin and pain mgt in general wants to know how many people have died from oxycontin and what is the abuse numbers..shared that we did not have the numbers but wants further info feels oxy is the best opioid hands down for pain requesting assessment tool concerned about pt that break his 2 stike policy for he is leniant because he believes that they are in true pain and need money so it is tempting to sell oxy for the money and suffer in pain when these pts have nothing but food stamps. therefore dosing meth 90mg bid for pain cheap and very little street value asked md to stand by his stike policy to protect himself and weed out abusers. They say we have to talk to Cheryl because she knows how to address him! IF any pt asks him about oxycontin or indicates that they are not incontrol of their pain, he cuts them off immediately. He is not differentiating between good and bad patients. Even those that he has been treating a long time. He also freaked out because of Banaga's arrest. Tried to explain that it was because of poor documentation and not oxycontin.

PPLPMDL0080000001	Cuyahoga Falls	OH	44223	10/10/2001	luncheon md focused and upset over medicaid issue and oxycontin. Had written a letter to medicaid regarding discriminating against oxy and no other drugs etc.. requesting to do a talk in columbus with other pain mgt physicians regarding pain and oxycontin to teach medicaid, for they do not understand pain mgt. Stated that our co. is upsetting him in our approach in handling issues that arise believes we are too worried about being conservative and politically correct while problems explode. asking who in our co is involved and want to go with them to talk to medicaid gave me a copy of the letter he wrote -- has had 4 overdoses in his practice second to people snorting and injecting oxycontin --asked if it has changed his writing/prescriptions for pts he said of course a little but refocused onto medicaid. POA: need to resolve preoccupation with medicaid so we can discuss NEW pts getting oxycontin
PPLPMDL0080000001	Akron	OH	44304	10/10/2001	focused on quality of life with q 12 hour dosing -- md using tons of vicoden and asked how many pts take it around the clock and how many they are taking md could not even tell me yet he does not allow nurses to follow pain mgt??? POA: ctd to ask and focus on benefits of oxy may be easier to get new pts but he is in a habit at this point. Next visit use pain scale and ask when he leaves short acting agent
PPLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44113	10/10/2001	great discussion, asked him about his use of oxy, he says he is no longer writing oxy bc of the abuse issue, and he thinks that his pts will take more than he tells them to, ex is tells pt to take1 perco, then they take 2. he thinks in an ideal world the use of a long acting agent would be best, but in this world the only place it would be good is in malignant pain. talked about pt having withdrawal symptoms. focus on showing him that persistent pain is persistent pain, no matter if malignant or not. talk about flexibility in dosing and the convenience for the pt, talk about pts waking at night
PPLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44113	10/10/2001	talked about post op pain in total hips, he says that thes pts do not need alot of meds, but the take vico around the clock for a few days, told him how oxy is the same as vico just dosed 12 hours, he says that oxy is not needed in hips, need to show him, follow up

	Cleveland	OH	44195	10/12/2001	Mainly discussed oxy for post op Dr. Hayek/Malak were asking about absorption of oxy in pts who had small bowel resection. They are noticing they do not respond, but do well with oxyfast or the patch. We discussed how the absorption happens in the bowel, and the shorter, the less the opp. to occur. His concern with using la for post op is titration fear of withdrawal. explained that is not issue when less than 60mg/day and titrate like they do short acting. Pt checking self at 12 hrs instead of 41 sleep benefits and stable plasma concentrations. He did agree and said he would support it. doc asked about noroxycodone and cutting down dose in renal insuff. pts. suggested to do so, but not because of metabolite. Lori Brown from Texas, in charge of social events. Requested grant to update texts for dept. call jim, check price. She thinks it is a good idea to get out to talk in relaxed environment. Gave her my cell number to call. She said welcome to enter fellows room and leave materials. Atef Morkos- good guy, wanted to know differences between mscontin and oxy. explained that both long acting opioids. that morphine does have active metabolites that may produce more side effects and delivery system not as cutting edge as acro contin system on oxycontin. Did tell him it was less expensive, but more of an 8-12 hour drug. Oxycontin well tolerated, no active metabolites, true q12 dosing, fast onset, sustained release. Basali- all for oxy post op and would like to titrate pts themselves through clinic? but supportive to educate surgeons Dews- Asked if she is rxing oxycontin, she said a little with a smile. Its a start, and I hope I can make her feel comfortable again to rx. Brenda Feudo- still bringing up hype, explained to her that the wind changes and other "non-abuseable" opioids were being written up so it will never end. We need to be clinical in our decisions and not let the local hack persuade our good clinical judgement.
PPLPMDL080000001	Cleveland	OH	44195	10/12/2001	Mainly discussed oxy for post op Dr. Hayek/Malak were asking about absorption of oxy in pts who had small bowel resection. They are noticing they do not respond, but do well with oxyfast or the patch. We discussed how the absorption happens in the bowel, and the shorter, the less the opp. to occur. His concern with using la for post op is titration fear of withdrawal. explained that is not issue when less than 60mg/day and titrate like they do short acting. Pt checking self at 12 hrs instead of 41 sleep benefits and stable plasma concentrations. He did agree and said he would support it. doc asked about noroxycodone and cutting down dose in renal insuff. pts. suggested to do so, but not because of metabolite. PLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	10/12/2001	talked about oxy, showed me rx for 10mg pill that he just gave to pt, taking q12 now, does not write tid any more, says he sees alot of results with 10mg, he says he still does go to higher doses if needed, but that he is trying to minimize doses, asked him about moderate pain and he said he will not use oxy in moderate pain, says do not try to promote it there, next time talk about sneider and atc pain
PLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	10/12/2001	talked about her definition of moderate pain, she says that any pain that begins to hinder a persons qol, she says that she treat these pain states with opioids on prn basis, talked about using oxy on these pts when they prn no longer cuts it, follow up
	Oakwood Village	OH	44146	10/12/2001	met with kelly, still prescribes oxy for pts with chronic pain...4 years ago was investigation and he is still unhappy about it...on oxy use for husband and wife and pharmacist got together and went after kelly for bad practicing...pt is still maintained on 10 mg q 12 hours for his plane accident he was only survivor, uses uni and senokot...single entity has fallen on the whole...some duragesic has also moved in...dr talks of retiring real soon...offer next time documentation kit (think he may resist though r/t not wanting ANY extra things to do...didn't want rx pads??? treats pts w/ migraines w/ shots of darvocet 6 months in which the ama completely frowns upon...he also learned that at the previous pain mgmt seminar at cwru (he went a few years back as was demanded of him as his "punishment" of improper opiod use as was for 30 other docs from all over the nation.
PLPMDL0080000001	Barberton	OH	44203	10/12/2001	was heading out, no new patient on OxyContin maintaining three patients for chronic condition all are on 20mg q12h.

	Cleveland	OH	44195	10/13/2001	AWESOME CALLS- with Dino. protocol is pca morph >100mg/day converts to oxycontin. less was going to short acting. question was, what about those pts who were experiencing atc mod to sev pain and if they thought it was approp. they did agree but were concerned about dc'ing and causing withdrawal. we did explain that doses under 60 were approved to be dc'd abruptly, but they could manage just like the perc's, except that pt is self checking every 12 hrs instead of 4. Dino mentioned specific surgeries that docs mentioned require atc for more than a week. So June and Popp will give it a try. I showed AHCPR guidelines about going a way from prn to sched interval, and that dosing interval should be maximized. Benefits to pts- stable plasma concentration, compliance, sleep and staff don't have to run in assess, go get med, dose, come back in hour to reassess and do over again in 3 hours. June thought pts over 70 should only get lower doses of oxy because more sensitive to opioids. did not respond, but pts under 70 will get 20 mgq12 while younger adults may get 30-40 (based on some loose conversions). Next call: clarify terminology with them when they speak to surgeons CR oxycodone insteadof oxycontin because of emotional response. make sure they have bowel protocol. discuss drg's and pt

CLOSE FOR ALL ATC PTS
PPLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44333	10/15/2001	Using all vicodin most of patients are getting 30-45 tabs at a time with a couple of refills,lack of being able to refill scrips was a concern for oxyContin, only patients with chronic pain and come back every 30 days are getting
PPLPMDL0800000001	Euclid	OH	44119	10/15/2001	He is pretty much a straight shooter. He won't use in patients that he doesn't have a good documented history on. I showed him equianalgesic dosing with oxycotin vs vicodin and he agreed that oxycotin would be better for more continuous pain patients.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Parma	OH	44129	10/15/2001	met with roheny, is using 400 and 600 mg uniphyl, still using oxy no probs
PPLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	10/15/2001	talked about dosing oxy in rehab on 7a so to start the pt sooner on oxy after surgery, talked about using the 20mg dose
PPLPMDL0800000001	Parma	OH	44129	10/15/2001	mett wht song, told of d/c of unidur and theodur, said having difficulty with slo bid as well.... will commit to uniphyl left samples
PPLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	10/15/2001	talk about oxy and plastics use, talked about starting oxy in pts before surgery if they have pain, post op cases with senokot post op
PPLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	10/15/2001	in clinic with gagliardi, moderate pain and oxy, most pain cases he sees in trauma are severe and would use oxy anyway, follow up
PPLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44333	10/15/2001	Goal is to get vicodin pts for low back pain to be converted to OxyContin, once the take more tabs than every 6 hours are OxyContin patients.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	10/15/2001	talked about post op use of oxy, he says that he is using oxy and oxy ir in coombination, did not talk oxy ir, but focused on oxy 10s instead of 20s bc he says he was having trouble titrating with the 20mg dose, follow up
PPLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44333	10/15/2001	He has a procedure where he is going to tighten the cheeks of a lady and going to give 20mg q12h post op.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44333	10/15/2001	open shoulder, rotator cuff repair. He has a larger lady that needs her knee cleaned out he said going to give 20mg q12h for her.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44333	10/16/2001	He put two patients on OxyContin both chronic back pain patients 20mg q12h. New starts are where he is using more OxyContin if he is suspicious of the patients, using the patch as a litmus test. He said patients that have been on OxyContin and are switched to the patch, the patch does not work and then he said the pts usually do not come back. He perceives the patch as having less abuse potential than OxyContin.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Warrensville Hts	OH	44122	10/16/2001	doc says he is starting OxyContin for chronic pts he knows will be on for awhile. We discussed choosing among the options available to him. He does like oxycotin, he won't give it to anyone who asks for it. We discussed that being just one flag,which on own is not enough to say pt bad, start profiling other behaviors. Talked about pt selection relating to all opioids,, not just oxycotin. He agreed. Asked him to reconsider for appropriate new starts this week (mod/sev, atc). He committed to it.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Solon	OH	44139	10/16/2001	next call: senokot samples ask her if she has any patients on percocet that are taking it q-8 hours or less. She is interested in the tamper proof pads but doesn't write very many controlled substances, further more I asked her aboutusing oxycotin in moderate pain and she agrees with it but feels that who would attract to many of the wrong patients to her practice if word got out?????
PPLPMDL0800000001	Middleburg Hts.	OH	44130	10/16/2001	lunch apt made, very positive call, is using oxy and no real problems expect again, getting the product at the pharmacy level has been difficult./ did talk about the increased cardiac output and increased diaphragmatic contractility of uniphyl and to to constipation...use senokot
PPLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44113	10/16/2001	doc ready for pivotal dinner, on a wednesday over next two weeks. Says he is writing dura because they have sent him to conferences, so he has got to give them something. so he offers the pts the option of the patch. some like it, some come back to oxy. clarified that he was not switching for media reasons. Explained that we are helping him improve his practice both educationally and materials. He is appreciative, but says Janssen has done a
PPLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44304	10/16/2001	New PI, moderate to severe pain, Constant pain, 4-10 on scale. What do you presently use for Moderate pain? What do you like about it and how do you use it and Why do you use it.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Highland Heights	OH	44143	10/16/2001	I set up a lunch with them in a few weeks he's still using oxycotin and it's been very good for total joint procedure. he will use this week in total knee. Next call: need to find out wher he uses Endomorph

PPLPMDL0800000001	Barberton	OH	44203	10/16/2001	He called the patch the cadillac of pain medications for chronic pain, he had no logical reason that is just his clinical experience. I showed the PI's to compare blood levels and the APS to show oral is preferred but he said patch is first choice for chronic pain. OxyContin use is for subacute like severe strains. When asked what moderate pain was he did not give a disease state he just said he gets a feeling of what to use and that is what he goes with first. Uniphyl, asked about emphysema pts and said using other agents and referred to theo or compared to a poison in older patients. Tried to stress diaphragmatic contractility.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Middleburg Hts.	OH	44130	10/16/2001	he is the pa asst in surgery....very nice, wants to schedule a speaker seminar for group...need approval from Marty (then will try and schedule early next year-January) uses oxy...soon to get rx privileges

PPLPMDL0800000001	Barberton	OH	44203	10/16/2001	tamper resistant script pads. His standing orders are written for vicodin. Moderate pain falls with mild to moderate and this is most of the procedures he is doing, but he reserves OxyCotin for severe pain or if vicodin faild in efficacy.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44195	10/16/2001	doctor lining up support for the february meeting. using fact that he has defended oxycotin in media for a bigger grant. told him I would submit for whatever and we'll see what happens. he has new sec, set up time with him and jim.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Euclid	OH	44119	10/16/2001	problems with surgeons not wanting to follow post op pts. they put in epidurals and don't want to manage, he is overwhelmed. Brooks putting total joint pts on epidural for 7 days. discussed training a coupleof pa or nps to round on pts and getting them on oral meds asap. Then nurses can manage and lighten load on everyone. He said they are going to inservice the surgeons in a couple of weeks, so we can be there to help make presentation.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44105	10/16/2001	talk about last week, is oxy worth while here, or only at southpoint, she asked about writing oxy on southpoint rx and how it would be tracked, follow up

PPLPMDL0800000001	Broadview Heights	OH	44147	10/16/2001	Met with Karen Parsons. She said they are expecting over 100 people at the pain conference they are putting on. She said that the increase in Senokot-S is probably due to them taking over Montefiore Home. The hospice uses a lot of Senokot-S. Karen finds it hard to believe what is happening to Oxycontin, and believes that anything can be abused. She said that the direction is still not to "disadvantage Duragesic." She said Janssen paid for 2 booths at the symposium on October 24.

PPLPMDL0800000001	South Euclid	OH	44121	10/16/2001	SAMPLES & CONVERT TWO PTS. TO UNIPHYL ONE ON SLO BID & ONE OTHER F/B OF UNIPHYL CLOSE CONVERSIONS
PPLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44105	10/16/2001	talked in clinic, he says that he feels anytime the pt needs meds atc he will go for oxy 10mg, says that moderate or severe it is a good choice, tsalked about using uni in copd

PLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44333	10/16/2001	He was way behind, he is maintaining his patients on OxyContin but it is the new start patient where he is not using it as much. Starting patients out on vicodin or percocet first. he said he has not ruled out OxyContin for new starts but more are getting short acting. Need to ask why and when is he going to a long acting agent.
PLPMDL0800000001	Middleburg Hts.	OH	44130	10/16/2001	tried to get in for the 4th time and couldn't get past the front window, they stated dr is not interested in my product, speaking with me nor our resistant pads???
PLPMDL0800000001	Cuyahoga Falls	OH	44223	10/16/2001	quick hit with md in the middle of procedure. Spoke with Carolyn to get chirocaine .5 up on cart in 30 cc vials Need to keep on top of these guys more than initially thought
PLPMDL0800000001	Cuyahoga Falls	OH	44223	10/16/2001	wow need to stay on top of md to use chiro has not tried it yet. Brother and he do not communicate like i thought. Did walk together and find carolyn worde down vial size and concentration .5 for her to get up for the cart. Obviously md respects the fact that Bressi uses Chirocaine POA: cat pall and find again when both brothers are in and time of am best to bring in breakfast and talk
PLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44105	10/16/2001	focused on moderate pain pts, asked him the difference in intermittent and persistent pain, told him where oxy fits in with pts that have atc pain and need atc meds, not acute vs chronic. talked about using the 10s in those pts. talked senokot and uni
PLPMDL0800000001	Broadview Hts.	OH	44147	10/16/2001	Dr. is using Oxycontin in the nursing home. He said he is more hesitant to use it in his office. We spent a lot of time discussing the pain contract. He is interested in this. I will get one to him. He said he doesn't believe pts. too much as sme say they are in a lot of pain at 5 and others say they are not. He did mention he checks pulses. I explained that this may not be a reliable indicator as people adapt to their pain. He agreed. We also discussed Uniphyl. I focused on the diaphragmatic contractility. He agreed that theophylline does this, but didn't seem convinced to use it.

PLPMDL0800000001	Mayfield Hts	OH	44124	10/16/2001	doc rxs oxycontin while performing acu, but wants to see pt needing less and less over time. usually able to take pt off meds altogether.
PLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	10/16/2001	talked about moderate pain and using oxy, she has no problem with it, says that the ortho post op rehab can be moderate pain and that the 10mg pills are very effective, talked senokot s
PLPMDL0800000001	North Olmsted	OH	44070	10/16/2001	Find out who gets percocet maybe those should be Oxycontin patients. Any particular surgeries he uses it on 10/16 he said he is using OxyContin now for almost all surgeries that he doesn't need to use a liquid
PLPMDL0800000001	Richmond Heights	OH	44143	10/16/2001	hard to get time with hit and miss. I gave him a quick bullet point from ags to treat continuous pain ATC he agreed. Next call: AGS use low dose oxycontin in moderate pain
PLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	10/16/2001	talked in clinic, showed her pain scales and she said she would use them, asked her then about moderate pain and how she treats , says that oxy is for more severe pain, talked about the indicationa and dosing of oxy
PLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44333	10/16/2001	He has concern about OxyContin from media and he deals with spine cases and most patients have been to the pain clinics for back pain before coming to see him for surgery. Patients are taking 80mg q12h or q8h and he doesn't feel patients need to be on that much of an opioid. 20mg is what he is using most of the time and will go to 40mg if he has to. Dosing is the issue. He did a F5-S1 microdecompression, microdisectomy, but said was going to give vicodin q4-6, he would not move for the OxyContin, if not controlled on it then he will go to OxyContin.
PLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44333	10/16/2001	He is using OxyContin for OA patients who can not have surgery to replace the joints.
PLPMDL0800000001	Richmond Hts	OH	44143	10/16/2001	he avoids getting specific. everybody has an individual approach. I showed him the AGS guidelines and suggested use of opioid for moderate pain in elderly. he expressed concern of mental status and managing side effects. Next call: OA DID patient show him AGS stance on side effects and to expect mild sedation and treat constipation unsidine within a week.
PLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44333	10/16/2001	talked about moderate pain and ischemic conditions, mentioned scleroderma patient on OxyContin, this is an ischemic condition. OA patients are getting vicodin.
PLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44333	10/16/2001	He did a ligament reattachment to the left ulna in a middle aged main, wrote 20mg q12h.
PLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44105	10/16/2001	first asked her about moderate pain, she says that the pain scales will be helpful and that most moderate pain is a 4 to 6, asked how she would treat this pain and she said she uses nsaid's first then short acting agents, asked her about persistent vs intermittent pain and using the 10mg of oxy q12, says that it would make sense, talked oa. uni and copd also
PLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	10/16/2001	talk about using oxy in cases of moderate pain, also ask him what he knows about oxy ir. He laughed at the pain scales, says that it has made work tougher now, says that all pts will say it is a ten, asked him about functionality and if that is more effective, talked about pts whose qol is beginning to suffer and what he does, oxy is good choice
PLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44333	10/17/2001	Noncancer use of oxyContin, not concerned about his patients diverting it.
PLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44333	10/16/2001	right wrist procedure where he was cleaning up the synovial joint and doing a tendon repair, 1-2 10mg tabs q12h.
PLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44333	10/17/2001	One patient in 40's was losing his OxyConti to a friend, so had to discontinue. The patch is being used more chronic pain and is being abused less and not being as diverted anymore.
PLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44308	10/17/2001	What do you presently use for Moderate pain? What do you like about it and how do you use it and Why do you use it.
PLPMDL0800000001	Beachwood	OH	44122	10/17/2001	lunch, focussed on oxy and moderate pain, he ahs several pts that he see in op setting that are moderate pain pts, he says that they start with nsaid's and then go to a lower opioid like vico or darvocet, asked him about the fact that he writes refills, says that he does and that the pts end up taking atc short acting opioids, told him 10mg oxy is very mild and can be used in those pts, will use
PLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44311	10/17/2001	Seemed interested in pain management, on pain team at children's hospital. Agree's that children are undertreated.
PLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44203	10/17/2001	spoke with md regarding post hyst and chronic pelvic pain md said he used oxycontin in the past and had a bad experience believes it was more his selection of pts rather than the drug. explained that an opiod does not make an addict that an addic is already one (parrin's talk) md agreed and gave a positive response to moving in the direction of oxycontin for next hyst md did say that the ladies had alot of leg paralysis at AGMC and asked what they were using for an anesthetic. POA: ctd to visit md and ask him to give oxycontin another try when indication fits says he does 3-4 hysts a month last month he did 9
PLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	10/17/2001	followed up on moderate pain, talked about marcus and also about atc pain. talked about 7a, gave me contacts, follow up
PLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44117	10/17/2001	gave him the number to order the tamper resistant pads. We were discussing how he writes oxycontin scripts and he agreed not to put PRN on the script and instruct the patien to take it q-12 Next call did he reorder the script pads?
PLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44307	10/17/2001	New PI, moderate to severe pain, Constant pain, 4-10 on scale. What do you presently use for Moderate pain? What do you like about it and how do you use it and Why do you use it.
PLPMDL0800000001	Tallmadge	OH	44278	10/17/2001	positive to using oxy for chronic pain and neuropathies adn spinal stenosis, uses uniphyl as second line therapy, no problems getting either from the pharmacies
PLPMDL0800000001	Euclid	OH	44119	10/17/2001	Selling oxycontin to him is not always top priority. he feels pressure from Dr. mease director of OCC Med. who has suggested that perhaps he is not operating in the best intereset of Occ Med by seeing PMR patients. he felt that the pain program was very helpful and Tim Benedict was straight forward but on hte other hand he wonders how long he should be keeping patients on opioids. I discussed the state board regulations of treating 3 months and getting a specialist opinion on teh area involved and he is doing this. He did feel that his supprot staff feels better now after listening to benedict and parran.
PLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44333	10/17/2001	all patients that were getting OxyContin for chronic pain are now getting the patch. She said the couple of patients that she had on OxyContin were misussing it, so can not trust patients on Oxy not so on the patch that she said is not being used as much.
PLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	10/17/2001	talked in clinic, asked him about moderate pain, says thqat it ranks on pain scales from 4 to 6, says that pts in this range typically would be treated with nsaid's then prn meds, talked about oxy is indicated for moderate pain and can be used in those pts when atc opiod is needed

PLPMDL0800000001	Euclid	OH	44117	10/17/2001	He's getting heavy promotion from janseen. the pitch is less abusable and convience. they offered him a trip with his wife to Emilia island golf plus 500 bucks!!!!!! He hasn't started that many new patients he has a few but most are just being maintained. he stops at 40mg q-12 before getting a pain management consult that's where he feels comfortable. the viox rep told him that 50mg viox equals 5mg vicodin for pain relief he was skeptical. I showed him the APS guidelines of mild to moderate opioids and equialanalgesic dose compared to 650mg aspirin and he was shocked to see that conversion. I asked him if he ever though of 10mg q-12 of oxycontin being equal to 2600mg of aspirin and he said no but it gives him something to think about. Next call: 20mg q-12 of oxycontin is equal to 8 vicodin a day which equals 5200mg of tylenol????

PPLPMDL0080000001	Euclid	OH	44119	10/17/2001	He still perceives oxycontin as stronger medicine than what it actually is. I shwed him The APS 650mg aspirin equal to 5mg vicodin or oxycodone and he was really taken back by it. he said I get more pain relief from 60mg codien than I would 650mg aspirin??? I said I would think so to but according to APS you don't. I said if they both are indicated for moderate pain then their has to be some over lap in regards to pain relief he agreed for the first time I've been calling on him Next call: oxycontin potency compared to vicodin and NSAID's

Judette still writing mainly because she sees Weight still rxing. Key here is to follow up with Hendryx, Corteville (who is willing to try, just need to remind of dose), and ride Weights exmple. Find out issues he has had with post op pain, and use for topics, since he is setting pace here. Dierker will not dose oxy for c's because pts only on for couple days. I reminded him of benefits and if someone with a large episiotomy needs something longer acting to keep oxy in mind.
PPLPMDL0080000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	10/17/2001	Detailed from AHCPR guidelines on optimizing dose interval, scheduled dosing. Weight spoke about using oxycontin 10 2-3 q12 for ab hysters with excellent results. He said he is only leary of clinic pts. that ask for it. But mentioned stable plasma concentration, pt satisfaction, and I threw in the benefit to nursing staff on floor not having to run back and forth as much to dose and reassess. Pollard did not think that it was a good idea, but had no real basis for his response other than the media hype. So we talked about making clinical decisions on the facts and not the hyped up news. Hendryx said she is definitely on board for gyn and may even try for c's. May has not had a chance to try, so reminded of dose. Mangel has not written but says he lets fellow manage. PPLPMDL0800000001	S. Euclid	OH	44121	10/18/2001	at sample closet hit serum levels and chronother effects and gave NHLBI guide OxyC true Q 12 hr. cleaner than darvocet & morphine products media issue next vs. perc give protocol
PPLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44312	10/19/2001	OxyContin has slowed down, big concern over diversion
PPLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	10/19/2001	talked at metro, says that ed is no longer using much if at all, says that oxy is still possible in fractures
PPLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	10/19/2001	in burn clinic, asked him about dosing pain meds for burn pts when changes are needed, usually use a short acting med on top of short acting, told him about using oxy for baseline then short acting for changes
PPLPMDL0800000001	Gates Mills	OH	44040	10/19/2001	even after showing him the moderate pain indication he doesn't believe it. oxycontin is to powerful for moderate pain
PPLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44106	10/19/2001	might use OxyC for "Embolitic toe" thinking more chronic...but need to work the acute pop NO PT. SATISF SURVEY LOOP SET UP & RELYING ON THE ADMITTINGLY STOIC ELDERLY TO REPORT PAIN- WHICH WE KNOW THEY WON'T DO... BUT IF ASKED THEY WILL FIND THEY CAN DO BETTER FOR LITTLE COST/ EFFORT
PPLPMDL0800000001	Middleburg Hts.	OH	44130	10/19/2001	discussed indication for oxy again adn tried to pick a next candidate from his surg schedule for opy
PPLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44106	10/19/2001	Asked questions during lunch many elderly so wants be careful dosing em. Embolitic toe is more continuity post surg not big attention here due to lack of complaint from pts. next work RN to set up pts satisf survey & IF ELDER LESS LIKELY TO COMPLAIN & NO FORMAL FEEDBACK LOOP THERE'S THE POTENTIAL FOR IMPROVEMENT
PPLPMDL0800000001	Gates Mills	OH	44040	10/19/2001	he thinks of oxycontin as the heavy stuff. asked how it could be indicated for moderate pain if it's the heavy stuff. I don't even think he realized the point I was making because he automatically thinks of it as a last effort.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Cuyahoga Falls	OH	44221	10/19/2001	next call: build on the moderate pain patient and use of AGS
PPLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44106	10/19/2001	New PI, moderate to severe pain, Constant pain, 4-10 on scale. What do you presently use for Moderate pain? What do you like about it and how do you use it and Why do you use it.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44106	10/19/2001	lunch - need to get to the RN - Bridgette to get her to implement a pt. satisfaction survey per Hutton's suggest. - the objection is Vasc does little with pain mgmt. not because pain service takes over (they don't really have one UH) but because think pt doesn't have much pain for long mostly Toradol for 48 hrs then go home w/ Perc but claim not taking it -NO WAY TO TEST VALIDITY - HUTTON SAYS ELDERLY IS LARGE POP. HERE & THEY ARE STOIC AND THERES NO FORMAL PT. FEEDBACK SURVEY - THE WHOLE POINT OF JCAHO!!!! NEED TO WORK HUTTON
PPLPMDL0800000001	Westlake	OH	44145	10/19/2001	he said he is doing more children and therefore will tend to write a little less OxyContin
PPLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44312	10/19/2001	hip replacement patients in Edwin Shaw, has slowed down because of misuse and backlash from rehab area in the hospital and pts being admitted for misuse.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Cuyahoga Falls	OH	44221	10/19/2001	New PI, moderate to severe pain, Constant pain, 4-10 on scale. What do you presently use for Moderate pain? What do you like about it and how do you use it and Why do you use it.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Middleburg Hts.	OH	44130	10/19/2001	set up pa program for Feb will need to work with marty and brian to get rolling, will recontact albert in 2 weeks on status and location and speaker? hasnt gotten any candidate for oxy lately, felt his 2 surgeries were too small of cases and the othr wasn't a candidate he didnt feel this particular elder pt would do well on oxy, gave her percocet
PPLPMDL0800000001	Cuyahoga Falls	OH	44223	10/19/2001	New PI, moderate to severe pain, Constant pain, 4-10 on scale. What do you presently use for Moderate pain? What do you like about it and how do you use it and Why do you use it.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Middleburg Hts.	OH	44130	10/19/2001	thinking about moderate indication for oxy, generally he uses oxy on terminal cancer pts, and severe pain pts,
PPLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44106	10/19/2001	during vascular lunch reviewed post surg. mod pain atc used in ortho rotation next use this venue to access surg residents rotating through vascular - Embolic Toe is application of OxyC per attnedings
PPLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44312	10/19/2001	biggest concern is that patients do not want OxyContin b/c of concern of being robbed or taken from them. Still post op joint replacement.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Lakewood	OH	44107	10/19/2001	he said he is using Oxycontin regularly now but kept changing the subject when I tried to get specific. He did sayd he wrote it for one of his post ops yesterday
PPLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44106	10/19/2001	Saw at lunch: see benefit for Vasc pt. w/ Embolic toe - more chronic - 3 mo. pain vs. acute post surg. USE HIS OWN STATEMENTS TO SHOW A NEED FOR CHANGE TO BENEFIT THE PT. AT VERY LITTLE COST HE STATES THIS PAIN ISSUE CAN HELP THEM MEET JCAHO REQ'S. THE RN - BRIDGETT? NOT MOTIVATED BUT HE TOLD HER THEY DON'T HAVE A PT. SATISFACTION SURVEY / FEED BACK LOOP YET STATES ALOT OF ELDERLY IN CARE AND THEY ARE TOUGH/ ...STOIC... NOT LIKE YOUNG WIMPS. AND SAYS VASC SURG. TRY NOT TO USE OPIOIDS CURRENTLY MOSTLY TORADOL 48 HR. POST OP. THEN GO HOME ON PERC THINK THEY DON'T TAKE THEM THINKS THERE'S PLENTY COM LINES AVAILABLEHE SPELLED OUT THE BASIC PRINCIPLE... YOU HAVE TO ACTIVELY ASK THE ELDER "STOIC" PT. ABOUT THEIR PAINDO THE RIGHT THING WE CAN DO BETTER NEXT WORK HIM ON BARRIERS TO PROPER PAIN MGMT. AND USE HIS OWN WORDS TO GAIN AGREEMENT GET HIM TO PUSH THAT LAZY RN TO SET UP JCAHO PT. SATISF. LOOP AND ASK THEM ABOUT PAIN POST OP!!!!!!!
PPLPMDL0800000001	Cuyahoga Falls	OH	44223	10/19/2001	New PI, moderate to severe pain, Constant pain, 4-10 on scale. What do you presently use for Moderate pain? What do you like about it and how do you use it and Why do you use it.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44106	10/19/2001	covered post-surg moderate pain indication & conversions. next keep paintin picture success in vasc or GS
PPLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	10/19/2001	talked about trying to get oxy back in favour at ed, says that are using in trauma cases, sell here
PPLPMDL0800000001	Westlake	OH	44145	10/19/2001	went over opioid def green piece and he agreed oral should be tried before transmural or any other means. he said he will and usually goes to oxycontin before trying the patch
PPLPMDL0800000001	Cleveland	OH	44109	10/19/2001	says that oxy ir is no being used in alot of the post op case, both on 7a and 6b, says that oxy is used in trauma
PPLPMDL0800000001	Cuyahoga Falls	OH	44221	10/19/2001	New PI, moderate to severe pain, Constant pain, 4-10 on scale. What do you presently use for Moderate pain? What do you like about it and how do you use it and Why do you use it.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Uniontown	OH	44685	10/19/2001	He has concern abotu missue, he does not think it is media hype, in the past he had used for moderate pain and most pts only get 14 days of opioids at a time. Using more of the patch and saying it is not being abused as much. uniphyl for emphysema patients.
PPLPMDL0800000001	Akron	OH	44333	10/19/2001	quick hit, talked patient selection and bset route of administation as be advantageous to OxyContin.

		OH	44109	10/23/2001	Ludin says he starts all pts on oxycotin, still remembers he first rx, noticed less side effects v mscontin. uses patch only in case where pt is not tolerating oxy or it is not working for them. says most pts are controlled between20 to 40 q12. Never has had to go to 80 or 160. Thinks if he did he would refer to pain specialist anyway. He knows media has trashed drug, but thinks docs who waiver are not making clinical decisions. Obi listening in, did not add much, but asked about all the fuss. Ludin explained that people snort it and get high. Made it clear that these are not pts. discussed pseudoaddict, because obi thought she had a seeker, but women had cancer. Ludin mentioned study where 10,000 pts taking opioids were followed and rate of addiction was 1%. O'Brien and Crum are real cases. Can't get anything out of either one. discussed bringing in levy next year, both were appreciative.

Asked what dose rxing. he said 20 mg q12. He generally rx's 5.325 1-2 q4-6. Explained that is 20-60 range. Based on Ginsberg research, dose should be 30 mg q12 to start then titrate. He asked how soon to titrate. If pain not controlled at reassessment, add 10 mg tab, but if in hour 7/8, go with short acting, if more than 2x's/day, titrate basal dose again. He will try again. Most pts on a total of 7 days. Asked about nursing mothers for c's, asked if the needed atc analgesia for extended period of time. He doses perc for them now, so thought sleep benefits were important enough to try, but they are on atc for 4-5 days. discussed diff in peak plasma between i v cr and whether that correleates to breast milk concentrations. Went to 7th floor to sched ins with Janet, because nurses confused about med too (titration)

PPLPMDL0080000001	Cuyahoga Falls	OH	44223	10/29/2001	Dr. said he is using Oxycontin. Has no qualms about prescribing it. He said he has already had at least 2 pts. bleed from Celebrex. He starts pts. on short acting opioids and then moves them to Oxycontin. Usually uses Vicodin. I explained that the potencies of oxycodone and hydrocodone were the same, so when he converted to Oxycontin from Vicodin, it is a mg conversion. Also discussed Uniphyl. He said most of his pts. don't need more than puffers and when they do, they get referred to lung docs. I need to get him to think of one pt. who is not doing as well and get him to try Uniphyl. He said he doesn't use theophylline.

PPLPMDL0080000001	Lakewood	OH	44107	11/5/2001	Had a very good discussion with the physician. He said he is sure he has some pts. on CII's ATC, but could not pin down a specific pt. I discussed the use of Oxycontin for those pts. as they are in moderate pain and the indication is for moderate to severe pain. He kept referring back to his office pts. and he is somewhat hesitant in his office. I gave him a copy of the model guidelines and the AGS guidelines. He said he has the most patients at Franklin Plaza and he goes to the nursing homes on Wednesday. I told him that I am trying to improve pain management in the homes and that I am asking the nurses to change pts from ATC CII's to Oxycontin. He said he was ok with that strategy.
PPLPMDL0080000001	Westlake	OH	44145	11/5/2001	signed up raslan and iarussi for the rx program. asked iarussi about the chirocaine. said he will bring it up to glenn if pharm, just couldn't do it now because he was behind in clinic. mainly rx's opioids if block are not effective.
